Unexpected Openings Are Cited by Aide

HELP Group Will Press Recall

By MARILYN BRANNAN

The Laguna Salada School District has informed parents in the Fessler Avenue - Upper Crespi Drive area that they may return their children to Ortega School, starting Monday.

The development caught the Help Eliminate Lax Planning (HELP) Committee by surprise. The committee of parents had initiated recall proceedings against the district's board of trustees after their children were transported from Ortega to Linda Mar School.

District Supt. Fred Lucas, in an announcement sent home Friday with 29 children affected by the transportation move, explained that no new students have been accepted at Ortega since the beginning of the school year.

He added that an unanticipated number of families have moved out of the area served by Ortega and that a limited number of spaces now exist in the school.

Eugene Cowhig, chairman of HELP, said that a poll of parents of the 29 children disclosed that only one family is in favor of transferring pupils back to Ortega. And he added:

"As far as the majority of us are concerned, this chess maneuver merely adds more fuel to the fire. We are more and more determined in our attempts to recall the board."

The committee has drawn up recall petitions that have been approved, in form, by the county school office.

Cowhig said members of the committee are preparing precinct lists for circulation of the petitions.

"We have about 40 citizens who have volunteered their time to go throughout the entire district, obtaining the 2,000 signatures needed before the county can authorize a recall election," Cowhig said.

In the note sent home with students, Lucas stated that children should not be moved from (Please See Page 2, Column 5)

Funds Sought For Route to New Hospital

Sullivan to Be Extended to Mary's Help

By RON BATES

The Daly City Council passed a resolution Monday night, requesting $207,455 in gas tax funds from the state and county for major street projects including the extension of Sullivan Avenue to the new Mary's Help Hospital, now under construction.

The city will match the state funds. The road will be the main entrance to the hospital. "This is another major step in the development of a hospital for the North County, Councilman Francis Pacelli said. "It shows what can be done when the city, the county and the state work together."

One of the hospital's prospective neighbors, the Wesley Methodist Church, was given a green light by the council to construct a church in a commercial zone at 1474 Southgate Avenue.

The council had held up a permit last week to make sure the congregation understood a stipulation attached to approval of the permit.

Under the plan presented, parking facilities for the church would have been inadequate under a new zoning ordinance (Please See Page 2, Column 6)

Park Opposed By Residents In Vallemar

Pacifica residents in the Vallemar area strongly indicated last week they don't want any park development in the Calera Creek Parkway area.

Recreation Director Eldred Lokker said the Park, Beach and Recreation Commission held a public hearing to hear the opinions of Vallemar residents concerning a park in their area.

"There were suggestions that we erect one or two-foot bridges across the creek and someone mentioned building a small park within the total area. But the majority of citizens wanted to maintain the natural state of the land," he said.

He said the hearing was held on the suggestion of the City Council to see if there was any change in the thinking of residents about a Calera Creek Parkway development.

"This project was not part of the city's five-year capital improvement plan and certainly won't be after last week's meeting," he said.

Lokker added that tree pruning in Vallemar will continue and the Commission will attempt soon to begin a reforestation program for the area.

JUHS Aide Is Named by State Board

Louis Martin, principal of the Jefferson Union High School District Adult School, has been named one of eight California educators asked to work out ways for the State Board of Education to implement the provisions for basic adult education included in President Lyndon Johnson's Anti-poverty Act.

The announcement of Martin's appointment was made to the district board of trustees Monday evening by District Supt. Edward D. Morgan.

It followed by two weeks Martin's presentation of a program designed to make the district one of the first in the nation to take advantage of the new legislation.

The board voted Monday evening to proceed with the program and to approve Martin's (Please See Page 2, Column 4)

A Time for Giving Thanks

Bless This House

Bless this house, O Lord we pray,
Make it safe by night and day,
Bless these walls, so firm and stout,
Keeping want and trouble out;
Bless the roof and chimneys tall,
Let Thy peace lie over all;
Bless this door, that it may prove
Ever open to joy and love.

Bless these windows shining bright,
Letting in God's heavenly light;
Bless the hearth as blazing there,
With smoke ascending like a prayer;
Bless the folk who dwell within,
Keep them pure and free from sin;
Bless us all that we may be
Fit, O Lord, to dwell with Thee,
Bless us all that one day we May dwell, O Lord, with Thee.

FOUR YOUNGSTERS kneel in front of an enlarged reproduction of the hymn, "Bless This House." Tomorrow, thousands of North County folk will offer thanks for their blessings as they gather in their homes for family reunions on Thanksgiving Day and sit down to tables laden with traditional Thanksgiving fare.

4 Injured In Pacifica Fire, Blast

Four persons were injured in a fire and an explosion on the same day last week in Pacifica.

In the fire, Joseph D. McGrath, 54, suffered second and third degree burns of both arms, the face and back when he tried to rescue his two teen-age sons from flames that had engulfed his home at 175 Brighton Road before dawn Friday.

However, one of the sons, Joseph, 16, had been awakened by smoke earlier and, unknown to the father, had thrown his brother Donald, 14, through a window to safety, and then had attempted to rouse his parents by knocking on their bedroom window from the outside.

Firemen said McGrath apparently had fallen asleep while smoking a cigarette and was awakened by fumes around 12:30 a.m. from a smoldering mattress.

They said he placed the mattress in water in a bathtub but left a portion of it sticking out.

Around 3 a.m., the dry part of the mattress burst into flames (Please See Page 2, Column 1)

D. C. BOARD ACTION

Two Firemen Suspensions Are Upheld

The Daly City Personnel Board Monday night upheld 15-day suspensions of two firemen charged with disobeying direct orders to attend in-service training classes at the College of San Mateo last spring.

The board acted after holding hearings on the suspensions for Ronald Angelot and John P. Harris last Tuesday.

A hearing on the same charge will be held December 17 for a third fireman, Edward O'Haire.

At last week's hearings, Angelot agreed he had disobeyed a direct order but felt the 15-day suspension and loss of pay for that time was too severe for a first offense.

He admitted in reply to a question by City Attorney Paul Hupf, however, that he held outside "side jobs" and that his wife was employed.

Angelot asked Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy why other men who did not attend the classes but were listed on the order were not suspended.

Kennedy replied that one of the firemen had served five years for a fire department in St. Louis and had been placed in a salary class that did not require him to attend the course.

A second fireman had requested and was authorized to substitute a class at Jefferson High School, Kennedy said.

At his hearing, Harris told the board that he could not attend (Please See Page 2, Column 2)

1100 Autos Checked in D. C. Drive

An estimated 1,100 motorists participated in Daly City's first Vehicle Safety Check Week, which ended Saturday.

The eight-day campaign to check holiday accidents by checking automobiles for safety defects was conducted at 14 gas stations.

Drivers whose vehicles passed a 10-point inspection program received an official "Safety Checked" seal presented by the Daly City Rotary Club and the city, co-sponsors of the program.

More than 86 per cent of all vehicles checked passed, according to preliminary figures. At Westmoor High School the Westmoor Safety Club held a voluntary vehicle check on campus.

George Chrestionson, auto mechanics instructor, reported that 39 of 45 vehicles inspected passed the test.

Rotary President Dr. George Riba and Mayor Michael De Bernardi both expressed their (Please See Page 2, Column 2)

Date Set for Joint Meeting On WHS Pool

By RON BATES

Whether or not Daly City and the Jefferson High School District get into the swim of things soon on the joint construction of a swimming pool at Westmoor High School will be discussed January 18 at a joint meeting of the City Council and the school board.

The date was set after a panel discussion before the Westmoor High School P-TA Thursday brought out several facts about the proposed pool.

Among them:

- The enclosed pool would cost approximately $700,000 to $800,000.

- The city would probably have to assume ownership of the pool in order that the school district not be penalized for additional classroom space in computing state school fund aid.

- Legal problems, such as who shall be the architect, must be clearly decided before any agreement is decided upon.

- The question of financing remains a question.

- In a subsequent report to the school board Monday night District Supt. Edward Morgan said architect Mario Campi's preliminary estimate of construction costs for the pool is $810,000.

- The figure is based he said on the estimated rise of construction costs since the Larsen Pool in San Francisco was built in 1959 at a cost of about $350,000.

- Morgan said that if the $810,000 figure is correct, it would take the district approximately 10 to 12 years to pay for its share of the pool.

- Daly City Mayor Micheal De Bernardi, Board Chairman Elio Fontana, City Manager Edward Frank, District Administrative Assistant Richard Coltrill, Recreation Department Director Charles Vincent and Westmoor Athletic Director Anthony Giammona took part in the panel discussion at Westmoor.

- De Bernardi pointed out there were three ways of financing the pool—by a bond issue, assessment district or on a "pay as you go" basis.

- He said the city was still interested in the construction of the pool but several problems had to be worked out first.

- "Nobody has really come up with a solution to the financing of the pool," he said.

- He said he doubted a bond issue would pass because there are residents in the city who would say, "I've already got a pool. Why should I pay for one at Westmoor?"

- Fontana said a swimming pool was included in the master (Please See Page 2, Column 7)

D. C. Resident Is Named to County Unit

The appointment of Laurence E. Yule, 251 Alexander Avenue, Daly City, to the San Mateo County Board of Education was announced last week by the board's president, Mrs. Florence M. Cadigan of Redwood City.

Yule will fill the post vacated by Mrs. Stella L. Jensen who has moved out of the area. He will serve until 1965 when Mrs. Cadigan's term would have expired.

Yule was one of four recommendations of a Citizens' Nominating Committee consisting of Mrs. Katherine R. Mullen, chairman; James M. Cooper, Mrs. Estelle Dahlquist, Mrs. Arnold Rowell, Alfred Parodi, U. R. Kendree, Mrs. A. L. Hanselman and Allen B. Rigler.

The new county board member is an attorney for the Veterans' Administration, which he has served since 1947.

He and his wife, Velma, live at the Alexander address with their two daughters, Vivienne, who is 18, a sophomore at San Jose State, and Valerie, 16, a junior at Jefferson High School.

Top Priority For College In County

San Mateo County virtually was assured No. 1 priority for establishing of a state college before 1969 by the Coordinating Council for Higher Education yesterday in Los Angeles.

The Council will recommend to the Legislature the choice from among three locations by the State College Board of Trustees for a state college. Trustees have already indicated that the choice will be San Mateo County, and will formally submit their recommendation before the convening of the January session of the Legislature reported State Sen. Richard Dolwig.

Dolwig said he will introduce a bill in January seeking ten million dollars for the acquisition of a campus site, and also will introduce the bill authorizing San Mateo State College.

Dolwig said a staff report to the Physical Facilities Subcommittee was accepted Monday.

The report stressed the ultimate need for state colleges in San Mateo, Ventura and Contra Costa Counties, the lawmakers said, but set 1970 as the target date for authorization by the legislature.

A Hopeful Watch

MRS. AL ICKLER looks hopefully at the banana plant in her back yard for further indication that bananas will sprout. Local nurserymen say that its unusual for bananas to grow in this climate. (Post Photo)

Banana 'Crop' Due

By RON BATES

DALY CITY has been kidded so much about its fog and cool weather, it doesn't seem likely it could be mistaken for the tropics.

But after a look out the window of the lanai-type social room of Mr. and Mrs. Al Ickler of 135 Larchmont Drive, it just might be.

For looming there, about 12 feet high and almost ready to bear fruit, is a banana tree.

Banana trees, nurserymen say, are not unusual in climates like Daly City. But what IS unusual is the possibility that this one may bear fruit.

According to the growth process described in Compton's Encyclopedia, the Ickler plant has every indication of producing a stalk of bananas.

"... soon the petals of the flower drop off and inside is seen a bunch of tiny bananas pointing toward the earth. As they grow larger, however, they turn upward," the encyclopedia explains.

It adds that three to four months elapse from the time the telltale fingers appear before the bananas are ready for cutting. So for a period of time, the Ickler house will be a must visit for neighbors.

THE FACT that the tree is still living is in itself somewhat of a miracle, according to Mrs. Ickler.

The plant was obtained along with two others four years ago by the Icklers to give their large playroom a sort of a tropical look.

The plant worked out fine at first but the leaves grew so large they made house-keeping in the room difficult, Mrs. Ickler said. So, unknown to her husband, she doused the plant with a cleaning solution.

"All it seemed to do was pour a little," she said, "and then it came on strong again."

After a year of indoor living, the plant was placed outside along a waterfall setting in the garden along with the other two plants.

Once again it pouted. Then after no special attention, it grew large again and is now sprouting the blossoms that will become bananas.

MRS. ICKLER said the plant had been kept rootbound for a long time and this may be one reason for its present condition. The other two plants obtained at the same time do not have blossoms.

Asked if she planned to give it any special treatment, Mrs. Ickler replied:

"Maybe I shouldn't, but if I have to stay out there with a lantern every night until those bananas get big, I will."

Long Agenda Faces Coast City Council

Pacifica's city fathers face a lengthy agenda tonight, covering a variety of subjects that range from planning matters and ordinance reports to a taxpayer's admonition regarding more bus stops.

Katherine Grottm, of 1977 Beach Boulevard, Pacifica, lauds the council's Transportation Committee for taking interest in pedestrians who depend on Greyhound buses for transportation.

However, she asks the council in a letter to consider that all pedestrians are not in their teens—or even their thirties—and the "prospect of hiking more than a mile twice daily (to a bus stop) is scarcely inviting."

Other matters before the council tonight include:

Recommendations from the Personnel Advisory Board regarding the establishment of a new junior engineering aid position and regarding the lengthening of the work week for engineering and building employees from 37½ to 40 hours per week.

A letter from the California Cable Communications Corporation, stating that a section of the proposed community television antenna ordinance calling for free service for schools is unfair.

Eugene A. Iacopi of the corporation writes that CATV will serve Pacifica in the same capacity as a hardware store or any other business.

"If we are granted a franchise, we would be willing to accept the fact that we are a public service and would be willing to put into writing the fact that we would deliver to schools CATV service on a non-profit, cost-covering basis," he states.

A $755.50 claim against the city by a returned missionary, Edward Mayer of 352 Nelson Avenue. On October 29, his six-day-old carpeting was ruined by a sewer back-up, he claims, and he wants reimbursement for rug cleaning and plumber's fees.

An agreement sent by the state, authorizing a state-selected private firm to make an actuarial study of the potential costs for the city and for employees for entry into the state retirement system. This study will cost a maximum of $350. The firm is Coates, Herfurth and Englund, the same firm that conducted a previous police personnel study.

Annual audit reports concerning operating funds and assessment district funds.

Public hearings on rezoning for portions of Brighton Beach and a proposed multiple residence district ordinance.

An application to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board by Joseph F. and Myrna E. Major for a license for general off-sale of liquor at the County Road Market at 114 Palmetto Avenue.

The council will present Mrs. Harold Feyge with a green, leather-bound memorial resolution in token of the "esteem and respect in which the memory of her good husband will be held."

The resolution commends the late councilman and ex-mayor for his devoted service to the city and expresses the deep sense of loss that Pacificans feel because of his death.

In other action, trustees commended Oceana High School Principal Ernest Ribera for his handling of a controversy over Oceana's attendance next year at a model United Nations program at the University of California.

one class to another more frequently than is necessary during the school year. He added, however, that since some parents feel strongly that their children's attendance at the school nearest their home is very important, the district is giving the parents the prerogative of having the students returned to Ortega.

He said Monday was chosen as a return date because it comes at the end of the first report card period and is the first school day after the Thanksgiving vacation.

He added that any vacancies existing in Ortega School after Monday will be filled by new students moving into the school attendance area.

James Foley, attorney for HELP, said the committee has prepared a letter for return to the school district in cases where a parent decides to keep his child at Linda Mar rather than return him to Ortega.

The letter restates the committee's belief that attendance of their children at the school nearest their home is important. Then it says:

"Inasmuch as the school board and Mr. Lucas have informed us that good educational practice indicates children should not be moved more than is absolutely necessary, and since you have decided earlier that the move is not absolutely necessary, I do not feel that I can permit you to ignore your own advice."

The controversy began in September when the 29 children were transported to Linda Mar School because class sizes at Ortega exceeded the legal 31 student limit.

District officials said bus policies were drawn up by a citizens' committee after considerable study when it became clear the district must either reduce the class size or be penalized by the state.

The Rev. Clifford Droke, pastor of the church, told the council that the congregation was aware of the stipulation and planned to construct a garage big enough to qualify under the new ordinance.

The congregation is presently using the multi-use room of Thomas Edison School for its services.

The council instructed City Engineer William Chapman to determine the cost of replacing city street signs and raising the candlepower of street light.

The requests were made by Councilman Edward Dennis and Mayor Michael DeBernardi respectively.

plan of Westmoor when the school was designed in 1957. Pipes in the south end of the building are ready to accommodate it.

He said several meetings have been held by different committees over the years, but several other worthwhile projects pushed the idea of the pool aside.

"I think the pool will eventually become a reality," he said, "but there are still some problems to work out."

Cottrell said the district levies a "civic center tax" amounting to approximately $70,000 a year.

This would probably be the source of the district's funds to pay for the pool, he said. About half of the tax is now being spent on salaries and the remainder on such things as Westmoor Park, the Terra Nova Pool, Westmoor's Little Theater, and Jefferson play courts.

Cottrell pointed out that according to requirements of State Building Fund allocations, the square footage of the pool would count against the district if it remained in district ownership. The city would have to own it, he said, even though it would be part of the school.

He said the Jefferson pool was built before the state law concerning building funds was enacted. The Terra Nova pool, which cost $66,000, is an outside pool and therefore does not count as classroom space, he added.

He said the City of Pacifica paid $33,000 of the cost of the Terra Nova Pool.

Holgerson Seeks Post

Vice Mayor E. A. Holgerson of Half Moon Bay last week said he has notified Gov. Edmund G. Brown that he is available for the forthcoming vacancy on the county board of supervisors, created by the death of Supervisor-elect Joseph J. Verducci November 6.

He thus became the fifth person known to be interested in being named to the post. Governor Brown must make an appointment after January 2. He is expected to make known his choice before then.

Firefighters estimated damage at $4,500. McGrath was admitted to Peninsula Hospital in Burlingame.

In the explosion, a blast, apparently caused by a welder's acetylene torch being used near flammable liquid, rocked a building at 100 Carmel Avenue Friday afternoon.

The welder, Jerry Analick, was treated for singed hair. Two of 27 firemen who responded to the fire also were treated for minor injuries. They were Capt. Al Deshaies and John McCoy, a volunteer firefighter. Damage to the building was estimated at $9,000. Damage to the contents, which included several vending machines being repaired and a boat being rebuilt, was estimated at $15,000.

"We had hoped to run a total of 5,000 cars through the check stations, but a local gas price war kept the dealers so busy that it was all they could do

Planners Reject Sign Proposals

The Daly City Planning Commission has turned down requests for two large signs that would have been visible from the Southern Freeway even though erection of the signs would not have affected the granting of state landscaping funds.

The signs had been requested by Williams Ford of 6100 Mission Street.

Planning commissioners stated that they did not want to set a precedent for this type of advertising along Mission Street.

One of the requests had been held up by the commission two weeks ago so City Engineer William Chapman could determine the effects of the sign on allocation of funds for landscaping. Chapman said, however, that state officials had informed him the sign would have no effect.

Ernest Freese of Electrical Products Company pointed out that an original application had been turned down by the commission before because the sign would have been opposite three residential homes.

He presented a petition, signed by residents of the three homes, stating that they were not opposed to the illumination of the sign.

Commissioner Anthony Masini said the homes are still there and for this reason the permit for the sign should be denied.

He said that in view of many applications for signs submitted by Williams Ford, it would have been better to consolidate them into one good plan.

In other business, the commission approved a rezoning classification from single family to apartments for property on the west side of Station Avenue between School and Vale Streets with the stipulation that property owners requesting the rezoning install a storm drain from School Street to the property.

Several adjacent property owners objected to the rezoning. The commission denied a request from Jan Tsui of 308 North Parkview to build a dwelling group.

Commissioner Melvin Taylor pointed out that the fire department would be unable to reach the rear of the building in case of fire. Commissioner Richard Dwyer said open area would be decreased, setting a precedent for the block.

D. C. Firm Gets Contract

The Daly City firm of COR-MAC at 6819 Mission Street, was one of three firms in San Mateo County that received government contracts last month.

The firm was awarded a contract for $6,731 to install emergency signals at a government facility.

A Dip in the Briny Deep (??)

AN UNIDENTIFIED merrymaker takes a dip in the briny deep (or shallow) during an all-teen carnival program sponsored by nine junior and senior teen clubs in Daly City in the War Memorial Community Center. The clubs are sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department. The dunking was one of several events in the program, centered around the theme, "The Roaring Twenties." Watching the big plunge is Les Williams who just prior had taken a quick dip himself. (Post Photo)

2-Car Crash Injures Trio

Three persons, two of them children, were injured in a two-car collision on Junipero Serra Boulevard near 91st Street in Daly City shortly after midnight Saturday night.

Mrs. Genevieve Ferry, 41, and her son, David, 10, of 875 Heather Drive, San Carlos, suffered whiplash injuries. They were treated at Peninsula Hospital and released. They were passengers in a car driven by Mrs. Ferry's husband, Francis.

Also injured was Michael Allen, 3, a passenger in a car driven by William E. Allen, 22, of 340-A Cedar Street, Millbrae. He was treated at Peninsula for minor bruises and released.

Chamber Drive Is Extended

(Editorial Page 9)

Directors of the Daly City Colma Chamber of Commerce this week appeared well on their way to achieving a goal of at least 100 new members before the end of this month.

Chamber manager Peter Markovich said the directors' one-day assault last week on the business community gained 28 new members and several prospects.

"Some of the directors were unable to go out Thursday," he said. "Others were unable to make all their contacts."

As a result, the drive will be continued until the end of the month.

The directors spent an entire morning last week making calls after a breakfast conference at the Westlake Bowl. They met again for lunch at the Friar Room to report on their progress.

David Friedenberg, newly installed president of the chamber, said that after the membership drive is completed, he expects greater participation in regular monthly meetings.

In outlining future projects for the year, Friedenberg said the chamber will sponsor a "first-class brochure" with maps, facts and figures designed to attract industry to Daly City.

"One of the chamber's functions is to spread out the tax base with new industry and business," he said. "To be done right, we have to do a first-class job."

Last week, the chamber heard reports on progress toward the new Daly City Hall and on transportation problems from Daly City Councilman Albert Polon.

In outlining future projects for the year, Friedenberg said the chamber will sponsor a "first-class Hupf."

Fifth Rabies Vaccination Clinics Set

The fifth annual San Mateo County Rabies Vaccination Clinics will be held Sunday, December 13, from 2 to 5 p.m.

In the North County, the clinics will be held at the Pacifica Fire Department station at Milagra Drive and Edgemoor Avenue and at the North County Health Center at 1024 Mission Road in South San Francisco.

The clinics will be sponsored jointly by the San Mateo County Department of Health and Welfare and the Peninsula Veterinary Medical Association.

The county has not recorded a case of rabies since 1948—the best record of any county in the state, according to officials.

Teen-agers Seized in Break-ins

Three San Francisco teen-agers were arrested by Daly City police over the weekend in connection with break-ins at two stores in the Westlake Shopping Center.

The youths were apprehended in the center's parking lot by Patrolman John Kolbmann.

Seized were a quantity of tools the youths had used in the break-ins, investigators said.

The break-ins were reported by the F. W. Woolworth Company and Richter's Interiors.

The youths had broken through a skylight of Richter's and stolen a cash box containing $68, which was found on the store roof, police said. They added that an attempt had been made to force open a safe.

Police said the youths were 13, 14 and 17 years old. They were turned over to the Youth Guidance Center in San Francisco.

5 Pacifica Youths Hurt In Collision

Five Pacifica teen-agers and a Daly City man were hurt Saturday night in a three-car accident on Cabrillo Highway in Pacifica.

Highway patrolmen said the accident was caused by Elmer V. Tompkins, 50, of 335 Higate Drive, Daly City, who attempted to turn left onto Cresip Drive and whose car was struck by an auto driven by David A. Bauman, 16, of 230 Reichling Drive, Pacifica.

The youth's car then skidded on the wet pavement and was hit by a convertible driven by Stephen J. Rentmeester, 17, of 457 Brighton Road, Pacifica.

Injured, in addition to Tompkins and the Bauman boy, were four passengers in the Bauman car: Richard Galindez, 16, Will Fraaze, 17, Cameron Buckle, 17, and Orlando Demko, 17. Officers said Tompkins refused medical treatment. The boys were taken to Peninsula Hospital.

Church Thief Grabs $450

Theft of the collection money from two early morning masses, estimated at between $400 and $450, was reported to the sheriff's office Sunday by the Rev. Paul P. Coleman, pastor of St. Veronica's Catholic Church at 434 Alida Way, South San Francisco.

The pastor said he left the money in two money bags on a desk in the business office in the rectory.

The outside door to the office was locked, he said, but it was possible for someone to have entered the office through the basement, which had been left open for parishioners to leave donations for a forthcoming clothing drive.

HILBERT "Van" Van Buren of Terra Nova High School is one of two people:

- 1) Probably the most versatile English teacher in the district.
- 2) Probably the most versatile coach in the district.

Choose one, depending on whether you're academically or athletically oriented.

Van, as he quite naturally prefers to be called, is a recognized expert in the field of remedial reading, is head of the TN English Department, and speaks Japanese for a hobby. (Having once been stationed with the Marines in Japan, his ambition is to some day return, for a year or so, to teach.)

Until this season, Van had been an assistant varsity football coach, specializing in defense. He's just completed his first year as frosh-soph assistant to Terry Moss who led the Tiger cubs to their first winning season ever.

Van now switches to wrestling where, for the first time, he'll assist head man Roger Miller. Last year, Van Buren handled one of the lightweight basketball squads.

In his spare time, he performs with a Half Moon Bay (he owns a 62-acre ranch there) little theatre group. He recently concluded a run of "Threepenny Opera" in which he and his wife, Mary Jane, a former TN English teacher, played leading roles.

Until this year, Van Buren had never been given even an extra free period for his volunteer coaching. Why does he do it?

He twitches his classic clothes-brush mustache, slips from a well-honed pipe and, with a calmness that belies the ruggedness of an ex-Marine officer and contact sport coach, says simply, espousing no great principles: "It keeps me in shape. Gives me a chance to unwind after a day of books and quiet classrooms."

A graduate of Miami University of Ohio, Van never played football there. As a matter of fact, he played very little football at Akron East High School in Akron, Ohio. Before he was really able to earn his spurs, he had to quit the squad in favor of an after-school job.

But this didn't sour Van on football. He's remained an aficionado.

While at Miami, he counseled football players in his dormitory. One of them, incidentally, was Stan Jones, the fine Chicago Bear defensive tackle.

Even while a Marine Corps officer, Van never allowed his love for football to dwindle. He soaked up all the knowledge he could, met and became friendly with scores of players, and has remained anxious to pass his knowledge and vigor on to young athletes.

SOMEONE ASKED US the other day why we never write of hunting.

One reason is that we've found readers of this type of column would rather read of spectator sports than participant sports.

The other reason is that we don't know anything about hunting. And the reason for that is, we guess, one of the two birds we killed as a youngster.

The first one didn't affect us too badly. We nailed him in our back yard, a fantastic shot with a rusty single-shot old B-B gun that you had to compensate high, to the right, and pray that the neighborhood would suddenly get becalmed. We got the little beggar (a sparrow) right through the ear at about 100 feet.

With our B-B gun, that was the equivalent of landing an ICBM in Khrushchev's lap, wherever he may be. We felt bad about it mainly because our father told us that such a dead-eye didn't need a new B-B gun.

Our hunting-lodge wall was barren for a year after that until we got a robin on our uncle's ranch in Livermore.

This time we had a rusty, single-shot .22, and a dog, King, a regular pointer. To give you an idea of what magnificent hunting instinct King had — if he were a spider, he wouldn't know how to make a web.

At any rate, we were returning from a hunt that had garnered three grasshoppers and a field mouse — and King had gotten all of those — when right near the Big House (that's ranch talk) we saw this robin light on the top branch of a large tree.

We wet the gun sight, like we had seen Gary Cooper do as Sergeant York, took aim and the last thing we remember before we dropped him was that the robin was a helluva good singer.

We got him right between the eyes. And the singing had stopped. His singing and the singing of all the field creatures, as it usually does in the country when death has occurred. And it was a lousy silence.

After wrestling the bird from King, we gave it to our grandfather, who promptly plucked it and cleaned it and plopped it into a private stew he had been conjuring ("for flavor").

Now, we don't mean to sound like an Albert Schweitzer or anything, and we have nothing against others hunting. But the fact is, we never again killed an animal and that's why we don't write about hunting.

SAN FRANCISCO STATE Quarterback Don McPhail this season succeeded in just about wiping the last of former Gator star Maury Duncan's records right out of the books with a fantastic display of one-year passing.

Duncan, who later went on to some success as a substitute for Y. A. Tittle with the 49'ers, at one time held virtually all Gator passing records.

We were writing athletic publicity for State at the time and thought that Duncan's records would never be matched.

Maury, after all, had obliterated almost all records previously held by Sam DeVito in the late '40's, and Sam's records had been something.

But in the latter 1950's, Jimmy Sochor (now a Gator coach) came along and wiped out many of DeVito's and Duncan's records, and now McPhail is systematically shoving them all out of Gator immortality.

All of which proves, we guess, that records were made to be broken.

SAW PHILLY catcher Gus Triandos on the job at a local department store sporting goods department the other day. Was going to talk to him about the Phils' collapse, double-checked his 6-3, 220-pound frame, reconsidered and decided to wait a few more months—for the sting to recede.

S.S.F. Dominates All-NPL Teams

12 Warriors Chosen for Two Squads

Jones Named MVP; Coach Is DeJong

By RON BATES

The champion South San Francisco Warriors have placed 12 players on the 1964 edition of the All-North Peninsula League offensive and defensive teams.

The Warriors' Greg Jones, who re-wrote rushing and scoring history while playing less than half of each game, was chosen the league's Most Valuable Player.

South San Francisco Coach Ray DeJong was named Coach of the Year.

The selections were made last week by the league's six coaches — Westmoor's Pete Matisi, El Camino's Bob Sexton, Jefferson's Joe McGrath, Oceana's Jess Jones, Terra Nova's Bob Fisher and DeJong.

Four players were named to both the offensive and defensive teams. They are Jones, Warrior guard Joe Del Carlo and Westmoor's John Price and Dan Hartman.

Besides Jones and Del Carlo, the Warriors placed tackle John Francis, center Noel Simmons, quarterback John Moro and fullback Steve Sanguinetti on the offensive team.

Warriors on the defensive unit include end Ron Labrum, tackle John O'Rourke, linebacker Bob Baptista and halfback Claire Hollenbeck.

El Camino placed four men on the two teams. Named to the offensive team was left end Bill Jones. Guard Jack Curtis, end Tony Trujillo and linebacker Mike Leners were named to the defensive unit.

Jefferson's scampering quarterback, Rich Cuadra, was the only Indian to make the dream team and Oceana's Steve Rentmeester, offensive guard, was the only Shark.

The entire defensive team is composed of South San Francisco, El Camino and Westmoor players.

Four of the coaches' selections are juniors and three of them will be counted upon to form the nucleus of what DeJong hopes will be another championship team for the Warriors in 1965.

He will have Jones, Moro and Simmons returning.

Jones' selection as the league's most valuable player was a surprise to no one. He, like Baptista, Del Carlo and Francis, was a repeat from last year's All-League team.

DeJong generally yanked Jones from the offensive lineup once each contest was decided, which generally was by half-time.

Nevertheless, the junior rambled for 735 yards in 71 carries and scored 15 touchdowns for 90 points—almost three times as many points as the next highest scorer.

DeJong's Warriors set a North Peninsula League record this season that cannot be broken—only tied. His team was undefeated in league competition.

The Warriors also were responsible for ending a Westmoor NPL win skein of 14 straight victories.

Gators Will Have Strong Delegation

(Picture, Page 5)

The San Francisco State Gators will bring one of the strongest delegations ever to strongest delegations ever to represent the college to a basketball clinic in the gymnasium of Westmoor High School Friday at 6:30 p.m.

The annual clinic conducted by THE Gators is co-sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department.

The Gator basketball offense in the upcoming season will be built around center Bob O'Donnell, a 6-4 returning letterman. Also back is Terry Stagner who performed as both guard and forward last season.

These Gators and other members of the team who will demonstrate basketball techniques will be headed by Gator coach Paul Rundell who, as in prior years, will deliver a talk on the finer points of the game.

3 Dominated NPL Totals

The running of Greg Jones, of South San Francisco and the passing combination of Westmoor's Mike Elston to John Price dominated the statistics this season in the North Peninsula Football League.

The trio led the league's running, passing and receiving departments, respectively.

Jones also scored 15 touchdowns to set a league record of 90 points and lead in that department also.

A junior, he carried the ball 71 times for a total of 735 yards and a 10.5 yard average.

Oceana's Steve McCaughy was second in rushing, 300 yards behind Jones, with 334 yards in 72 carries.

Elston, son of former San Francisco 49er and Daly City Recreation Commissioner Arthur "Dutch" Elston, hit on 55 of 91 attempted passes to account for 786 Westmoor yards.

The successful passes found their way into the arms of either Price, Bill Waite or Hal Dubrow. The three Rams ranked one-two and sixth in the receiving department.

Davis Leads Team to Win

Former Westmoor High School basketball player Rich Davis led his Islam DeMolay team to a 72-36 win over the El Camino DeMolay Sunday in the Peninsula DeMolay League.

Davis led the scorers with 23 points. Teammate John Harris had 17. Rich Winder was high man for the losers with nine points.

Let's Back Up Chamber Drive

THE enthusiasm that is being generated in the Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce this month may be enough to dispel the old superstition about the number 13.

The organization is beginning its 13th year and from all indications it looks as though this may be one of its best years.

Under the news leadership of David Friedenburg, the chamber is soliciting memberships in one of the most concerted drives in many years. The campaign certainly deserves the whole-hearted support of all the business community.

Daly City has in recent years experienced a growth so phenomenal that it is now on the threshold of becoming the largest city in San Mateo County.

The development of Serramonte in three to five years will add at least 20,000 residents to the present 60,000 population. This, coupled with the trend of growth that has been established in the past ten years in Daly City, will give the municipality an added dimension to its political and business stature.

As a letter sent to the Daly City-Colma merchants recently pointed out:

"There is probably no public body that can exert more influence or prestige than an effective chamber of commerce. It is, in effect, the business community speaking in one clear loud voice—a voice that is heard and listened to."

A VOICE LIKE this needs to be composed of many and varied businesses in order to represent the city's best interests.

The chamber has had a good measure of success in the past, but it could greatly add to its achievements with a more representative membership.

Among its recent accomplishments are the newly opened post office, Thornton Beach State Park, the Bayshore City annexation and Mary's Help Hospital. Much of the leadership and drive for these important Daly City projects came from the Chamber.

Among the annual affairs that stand out as examples of good community endeavor are the Student Awards Night, honoring scholars of Daly City's two high schools, and the Miss Daly City contest.

As enthusiastic members of the chamber, we endorse the often-heard statement: "A chamber of commerce membership does not cost—it pays."

The Marquee

Ruffled Feelings

Barbara Bladen

LISA KIRK made a late but glamorous appearance at Bardelli's the other day with what most of the patrons thought was excellent posture but which turned out to be a chip on her shoulder.

The stately brunette star of "Here's Love" completing a pre-Christmas stand at the Curran Theatre under the Civic Light Opera Association banner, took exception at something one of the critics had said about her. It was in reference to her being a night-club singer and she took it to mean she was better suited to that medium and wasn't as good on the legitimate stage.

The critic who made the remark (not me) smoothed her ruffled feathers and between the two of us, we pacified her injured feelings with the tact and diplomacy of psychologists. "What I want made clear," the brown-eyed fashion plate, stunning in an autumn-toned ensemble with burnished gold kidskin hat, expounded, "is that I only do a night-club act to keep working. I know I'm good at it. My husband Bob Wells writes all the material and we play in the very best rooms but my real love is Broadway and that's where I really want to be."

Her rise to fame has been spotty and the talented singer-dancer finds herself in an awkward position at this time in her career.

"I'm too young for character leads and yet there aren't many really good romantic leads being written these days. David Merrick wanted me to star in 'Gypsy' in London, after I dubbed Rosalind Russell's voice for the movie but the role is too harsh and I didn't think I could age successfully in it."

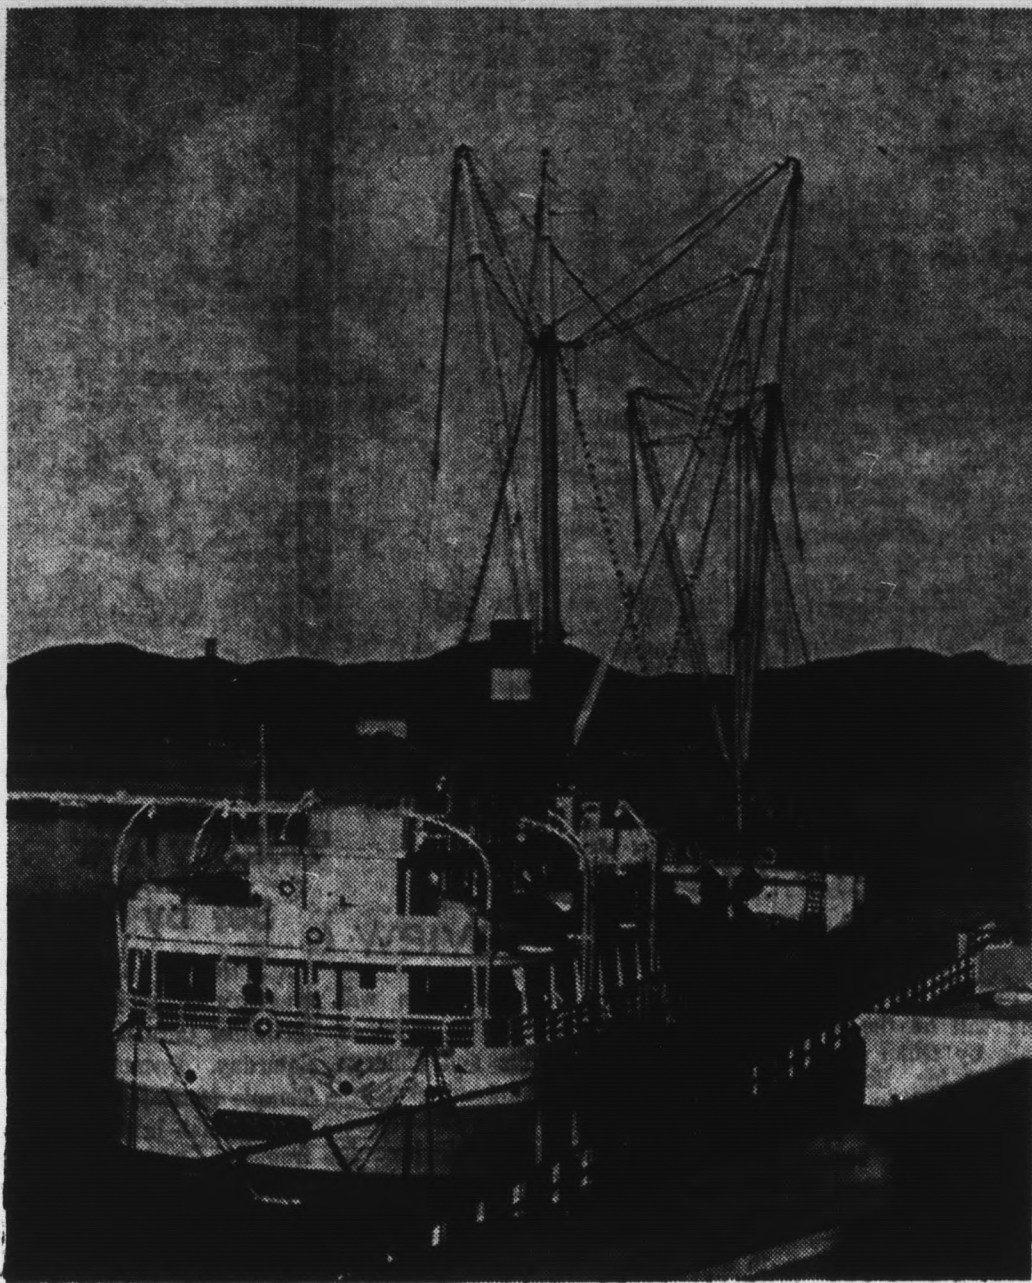

SHE TAKES roles she thinks will bolster her career although the past two national tours have garnered her less than personal fame. Neither "Say Darling," which was not a good show, although she performed admirably, nor "Here's Love," the musical remake of "Miracle on 34th Street" received rave reviews.

However in both cases her performance was the best part of the show. Her public image is still big from "Kiss Me, Kate" in which she so marvelously portrayed Bianca, but she is too long in this business to ride on the success of only one show.

THE BIG QUESTION is who and when will a composer write a show for her. "I even study acting at the Actor's Studio waiting for that day when I'll be offered a big starring lead. I refuse to do these silly second leads that don't have a beginning, a middle or an end and are stuck into shows so often."

As good as she is in night clubs, as hard as she works, as often as she plays the big rooms, and as lucrative as the pay may be, Lisa has her sights on something else in her future. A straight play or a new musical lead are not easy to arrange, even if one has talent.

But if anyone can knock on doors and make herself and her desires known, it is Lisa Kirk. She was the picture of graciousness when we departed the luncheon interview. Nothing like getting something off one's chest and into one's stomach. Food is always a great healer of ruffled feelings. At least, it keeps the critics calm.

COMPLETELY RESTORED by the State Division of Beaches and Parks, the former steam schooner, Wapama, built in 1915, awaits visitors at her mooring at the new State Maritime Historical Monument at the foot of Hyde Street in San Francisco. The Wapama was rescued from the scrap dealer's torch in 1958 in Puget Sound. More than three years of restoration work followed. The ship and two others are open daily at the Hyde Street pier from 10 a.m. to midnight. This is another in a series of articles on historical monuments and parks within a day's driving time of the North County.

North County Notebook

They Won't Be Boasting

Ron Bates

IT ISN'T every city that can boast a picture in a national magazine.

Daly City can, but I'll be willing to bet the citizenry and city officials would rather pass up the boasting when it comes to one picture in particular.

It's on page 381 of the October issue of "Recreation," the magazine of the National Recreation Association.

The magazine has a two-page spread entitled, "Signs of the Times—Which Shall It Be?"

On the left page under the subtitle, "America the Beautiful," are two pictures. One is a scene of beautiful mountains and trees, the other is of a street lined with attractive commercial buildings. The caption for these pictures reads like this:

SPACIOUSNESS? The glorious heritage of the American continent is in the hands of the people. "The good earth will remain good only if we make it so."—Stewart Udall.

On the right page, under the subtitle, "The World's Largest Slum?" also are two pictures. One is a scene of countryside lined with billboards, the other is of a street lined with commercial establishments. The caption for these pictures reads like this:

Clutter? Since man landed in North America he has greatly altered the face of the land. Have the changes lowered its quality? What kind of country do we want?

I'll leave it to you to guess where the Daly City picture is.

THE PICTURE, I think, actually should be reprinted and distributed to members of the city council for their current deliberations on the new zoning ordinance.

The hearings on the ordinance began last week with one voice, very obviously absent—that of the public.

Only one resident, Charles Garry of 485 Wellington Street, stood up to demand of the city council "courageous action" in passing an ordinance that is hoped, will stem the tide of "box apartment houses" and poor construction in Daly City.

Two developers were there and voiced objections to some of the proposed sections of the ordinance.

THE POST has come out editorially with a stricter ordinance with even less lot coverage than is proposed. Nevertheless, the 70 per cent proposed is a little better than the 75 per cent permitted now.

The developers argue that it would be hard to finance apartment construction under the proposed ordinance. One said Daly City is not San Francisco's Marina and you can't demand high rents to pay off the buildings.

It would seem to me that it would be better not to have the apartment buildings at all if in a few years these buildings would have a tendency to become apartment slums.

There are good examples in the North County of apartment house construction that looks attractive and draws high rents.

Another developer says we should look more to San Francisco's zoning ordinance for guidelines in drafting an ordinance for Daly City because the two cities are similar in many respects.

Actually, I think this is what Daly City's planning technicians did and that's why they used sections from places like Redwood City. You know the old adage about profiting from somebody else's mistakes.

It's unfortunate, however, that the only expressions of concern about the ordinance come primarily from the developers.

IT'S THE EASIEST thing in the world to be a Monday morning quarterback and say, "It was." But while you are in the driver's seat and susceptible to pressures, it's kind of hard to know what your people want—particularly when there are no people around to ask.

The make-up of a city should be reflected and determined by the people who live in it. It is conceivable that the proposed ordinance could be weakened by the silence of the people.

If it continues, we may have more concrete memorials to public apathy in the form of more "box apartments."

The Book Shelf

By SAMUEL CHANDLER
Daly City Librarian

"SEVEN DAUGHTERS of the Theater" is Edward Wagenknecht's latest candidate for popularity.

It contains portraits of Jenny Lind, Sarah Bernhardt, Ellen Terry, Mary Garden, Isadora Duncan, Julia Marlowe and Marilyn Monroe.

Each article is a study of the subject preceded by bits of poetry that seem to epitomize the actress herself.

The section about Marilyn Monroe is an elegy and a defense of an actress who was misunderstood and exploited. Wagenknecht calls Miss Monroe a "rosemary commingled with Puritan pangs." She was not, he says, a sensual person but rather the victim of a public image.

"She liked people who were kind and worthy of trust. She needed to have those he could believe in around her, what she valued most in love was not sensation but tenderness and understanding."

Her ideal was Lincoln, but she was a victim of what the author calls the great sin of our times—"of treating human beings as means rather than ends."

So Marilyn Monroe was used and developed a mania for being used that brought about her destruction.

THE SECTION on Jenny Lind was condensed and rewritten from the author's book-length biography. The section about Julia Marlowe appeared in "Modern Drama."

The piece about Sarah Bernhardt is an analysis of a woman who believed that people who create are greater than statesmen and warriors whose contribution is destruction.

It was said of her that rather than merely acting a female character in a play, she created a woman.

"Seven Daughters of the Theater" is a popular book with a thought or two worth contemplation.

A Nautical Yesteryear

Don Miller

A REPORT the other day that Sacramento may turn back the pages of time in a five-block waterfront area and re-create an atmosphere and setting that existed a century ago served to remind us that right here in the Bay Area we have a nautical page out of yesterday that, by and large, hasn't been looked at by too many folks.

It's the first California historical monument devoted to the state's seafaring past, situated along a pier at the foot of Hyde Street in San Francisco.

The monument, which at present comprises four old vessels representing different eras in commercial boating in San Francisco Bay, its tributaries and along the California coast, opened in October of last year.

Regrettably, because the state has done exceedingly well in the restoration of two of the vessels to date, the monument has attracted sparse attention—a state of affairs blamed on stiff competition from Fisherman's Wharf attractions nearby and on a location that is somewhat obscured from the view of visitors in the area.

FIRST ITEM OF nautical interest to greet visitors to the pier is a weathered stern wheel, more than 20 feet high, that once propelled the old steamer, Petaluma, on her voyages up the Sacramento and San Joaquin Rivers.

The vessel was the last sternwheeler to operate in this area. After 35 years, eight months and nine days, according to a plaque, the Petaluma was reluctantly nudged up to a berth for the last time by her master, John Urton, who noted in the ship's log of that day that 103 years of sternwheel river navigation had thereby ended.

Just beyond the stern wheel is a small, square wooden structure that serves as the administrative office for the monument and that, in its own right, is as interesting as any of the ships tied up along the pier.

The building once served as the first headquarters of the Tubbs Cordage Company, founded in San Francisco in 1856, and had been moved, intact, to the monument area from its original location near Potrero Point.

In the year the monument has been opened, a highly authentic collection of old-time office furnishings, paintings, maps and odds and ends have been carefully assembled by the monument staff so that the office looks very much like it must have appeared to businessmen in the latter decades of the last century.

NEAR THE OFFICE is the entrance to the main part of the monument area where adults are asked to pay 50 cents and youngsters, 6 to 17, 25 cents (children under 6 are admitted free) for the privilege of inspecting at close hand how some of the early chapters in California's nautical log were written.

The star of the show, in our admittedly sail-biased opinion, is the 156-foot, three-masted schooner, C. A. Thayer, a graceful reminder of the days when sailing ships dominated San Francisco Bay.

The Thayer was saved at the eleventh hour from a gravel bank in Puget Sound early in 1957 when the state purchased her, thereby taking the first step toward the realization of a maritime monument authorized by the legislature a year prior—legislation, by the way, that can largely be credited to the untiring efforts of the San Francisco Maritime Museum Association.

After extensive repairs in Seattle, the Thayer once again gathered the westerlies in her canvas and sailed to San Francisco where three years of painstaking work transformed her from the codfisherman she had become after World War II to the lumber carrier she was when she slipped down the ways of a shipyard in Humboldt Bay on December 30 of 1892.

Today, because of the high quality of work that has gone into the Thayer's restoration the visitor can almost see the stacks of lumber once stored in the hold and on the deck as the Thayer made her way along the coast line, carrying cargo from the thickly-forested northern state region to the lumber-hungry cities of San Francisco and Los Angeles.

MOORED FORWARD of the Thayer is a reminder of California's more recent nautical past, the 205-foot steam schooner, Wapama, built in 1915 both for lumber and passenger trade—a vessel that once was a member of a fleet of 225 wooden steam schooners built on the Pacific Coast, starting in the early 1800s.

Like the Thayer, the Wapama also was rescued at the eleventh hour—in this instance, from a scrap dealer's torch in 1948 in Puget Sound where she had ended her active career 11 years prior under the flag of the Alaska Transportation Company.

Restoration work on the Wapama is not virtually complete and the visitor may make his way down the ornate spiral stairway of the vessel's Victorian social hall, peer into the closet-size first class cabins with their three-tiered bunks or step into a 9 by 6 cabin forward of the social hall where gentlemen passengers retired after supper to enjoy cigar or a plug of tobacco.

The other two vessels moored at the pier are the ferryboat Eureka, a San Francisco Bay fixture for 67 years until she snapped huge crank pin in 1957 and was laid up, and the Alma, a scow schooner built in 1891 and salvaged from a mudflat at Alviso. Both are scheduled to be restored in the near future.

The Alma, moored off the port side of the Thayer and Wapama, is not open to the public. The Eureka is partially so. Aboard is a collection of antique autos, including a 1934 Packard sedan that is one of the finest examples of yesteryear auto restoration we've seen in these parts.

The whole show—sailing ship, steam schooner, ferryboat and old cars—is open from 10 a.m. to midnight daily.

On the basis of what we saw the other day, it shouldn't be too long before those sparse crowds become large crowds and this first California tribute to its seafaring past becomes one of the top tourist attractions in the Bay Area.

Peninsula Panorama

Supermarket Was on Wheels

George Whitesell

THERE WERE a great many conveniences and services that housewives of the Peninsula did not have in "the good old days," but modern women should not feel too superior on account of this.

Because the housewives of 1880 to about 1915 had some advantages that do not exist today.

They had never heard about supermarkets, but a lot of their food shopping was easier. They didn't have to load the kids into the station wagon for a food-buying expedition.

They just stayed home and the food came to them.

In those long-gone days, every Peninsula city had plenty of regular food routes served by merchants on wheels and many other itinerant peddlers.

About the only vestige of this that remains today are the bakery and milk routes and the house-to-house salesmen who offer brushes and cosmetics.

But there was a time when you only had to sit at home and wait. Eventually, whatever you wanted or needed came along.

The city licensing departments and the board of health didn't dream of interfering and anyone with a horse and cart, or even a child's wagon, could go into business. Private enterprise reigned unchecked.

NEARLY EVERY community, and particularly the outlying areas, had home-based dairy routes on a daily basis. Most of them were one-horse, three-cow outfits.

You didn't buy directly from the cow, but the proprietor was the middleman and ladled your milk directly from the can into your milk picher.

If you needed cream, you skimmed it from the top of your milk—and there was plenty of it there.

There were no fancy dairy products, but a few regular customers could count on home-bought butter once a week.

Bakery wagons were also daily visitors and their main business was bread at five cents a loaf—no fancy wrappers, the man just handed it to you.

Some of the bakersmen, however, did carry a few rolls and perhaps some salt-rising bread for those who preferred it.

As for cakes, pies, cookies and doughnuts—you had your own oven and kitchen range and you were expected to use them. "Boughten" pastry was a luxury in very low esteem.

In the summer the ice wagon came along every day trailed by a tangle of barefoot kids begging for a piece of ice to suck on. In the winter the same wagon used to sell wood and coal. You didn't need ice for your Martinis because you probably had never heard of them.

THERE WERE plenty of vegetable wagons, but you couldn't count on them every day. Most of the vegetable and fruit peddlers came around a couple of times a week, but this was a wide-open trade and you rarely knew what would be offered from day to day.

About all you could count on regularly was potatoes and onions. All other fruits and vegetables were strictly seasonal and depended on what the peddler's truck garden was producing.

In the canning season, any farmer or rancher was likely to load up his wagon and come down the street, bellowing his wares at the top of his lungs. You bought by the crate or the bushel. A peck was hardly worth making change for.

If you didn't think peaches were a bargain at 50 cents a bushel, you could wait for the next wagon. The second man would be satisfied with 35 cents.

Meat wagon men wore straw hats and paper cuffs and usually signalled their coming by beating on a triangle. They used spring scales and weighed their thumbs, but prices were so low it didn't make any difference.

And the meat man was very generous with liver for the cat and winners for the kids.

Noisiest of all the vendors were the fish wagon men who came along on Thursdays and Fridays. They used a tin horn that could be heard a mile away.

The most quiet were the pickle and sauerkraut men who called once a week with their stock in crocks hauled on a child's express wagon. They usually also carried fresh-ground horseradish.

Pack-peddlers with needles, pins and thimbles and "notions" were apt to show up any time.

The supermarket came to you and there wasn't any check stand.

Sugar 'n' Spice

THIS BEING the day before Thanksgiving, I know you have done all your planing and shopping and are probably not interested in new recipes at this moment. So why don't you clip this column and put it away to read the day after Thanksgiving? The recipes will be of great interest to you as you look at the carcass of the turkey and wonder what to do with the bits of left-over meat.

1-2-3 TURKEY PIE

- 1 cup diced cooked turkey
- 1 cup cubed, cooked potatoes
- 1/2 cup carrots, peas or cut green beans
- 1 can condensed cream of chicken soup
- 1/4 cup milk
- 1 tsp. minced onion
- 1/4 teaspoon poultry seasoning, or as desired
- 1 cup packaged biscuit mix
- 1/2 cup milk

Combine turkey and vegetables in a one and one-half quart casserole. Blend soup, milk, onion and poultry seasoning; pour over turkey and vegetables. Bake in pre-heated oven (450 degrees) for 10 minutes.

Meanwhile, combine biscuit mix and milk; roll one-half inch thick and cut into six biscuits. Remove casserole from oven; place biscuits on top. Continue baking about 15 minutes or until biscuits are browned. Makes three servings.

YOU CAN DOUBLE this recipe to accommodate larger families. If you have a lot of turkey left over you might freeze some of it for future meals. While you might be quite tired of turkey now, you won't be later and it will be nice to have the makings of a quick meal waiting for you in your freezer.

Speaking of the delicious "afters" of Thanksgiving day, you probably have some cranberry sauce left. Combine this cranberry sauce with raspberry gelatin and sour cream makes a delicious molded salad. I've made it for years and passed it on with great pleasure to my friends.

CRANBERRY-RASPBERRY MOLD

- 1 pkg. raspberry gelatin
- 1 can cranberry sauce, whole
- 1/2 pt. sour cream

Dissolve gelatin in 1/2 cup hot water. Stir until thoroughly dissolved, then add one cup cold water. Allow to thicken and then fold in the sour cream and the drained whole cranberry sauce. Pour in molds and refrigerate.

Note: This recipe calls for a full can of cranberry sauce—but it is a very flexible recipe. You may just add what you have left, and by all means add the plain cranberry sauce if you have that instead of the whole.

ASSUMING that you really did put this aside to read on the day after Thanksgiving, I feel it my duty to inform you that now that Thanksgiving is past, we must start planing for our Christmas baking. And the thing that must be started right now is our fruit cakes, for they really should age for a few weeks before we cut them. Next week we'll devote a full column to this interesting and delicious subject. However, to get you started, I'll include this very easy and inexpensive fruit cake that uses a cake mix.

EASY FRUIT CAKE

- 1 package pound cake mix (16 oz.)
- 3/4 cup chopped almonds
- 3/4 cup whole candied cherries
- 1 cup sliced dates
- 2 slices candied pineapple, sliced
- 1/2 cup flour, sifted
- 1/2 teas. grated lemon rind

Prepare the cake mix as directed on the box. Combine the almonds, cherries, dates, pineapple and grated lemon rind. Mix well with the flour. Then fold the fruit mixture into the batter. Turn into a greased and floured tube pan and bake in 325-degree oven for an hour and 15 minutes. Let cake cool in pan for 10 minutes, then turn out on cooling rack and cool thoroughly.

This cake may be eaten at once or wrapped in cheesecloth that has been soaked in brandy and stored in a tightly closed tin.

Book Gift Ideas to Be Given at D.C. Review

"Books for Christmas Giving will be the subject of a talk by Quail Hawkins, consultant for library services and book fairs for the Sather Gate Book Shop, at the December book review of the Daly City Friends of the Library.

The review will be held Thursday, December 3, in the Coral Room of the Westlake Library at 10 a.m.

Miss Hawkins is an author of several books and magazine articles and is well known as a speaker on children's books and professional writing.

Actor's Group Will Present 'Country Wife'

"The Country Wife," William Wycherley's farcical tribute to love and wenching, will open at Marines' Theater in San Francisco Friday for a five-week holiday run.

The Actor's Workshop is offering the restoration comedy as the second production of its 1964-65 subscription season of professional theater.

"The Country Wife" explores romantic shenanigans in the London of Good King Charles. Mr. Pinchwife, a fussy fellow on the crickety side of middle age, carts his new young and wide-eyed wife Margery to the big city, providing a field day for the young rakes of London.

Like other restoration comedies, "The Country Wife" is a reaction to the thumb-nosed Puritanism of English life under Oliver Cromwell.

Library to Change Its Art Exhibit

One week remains on an exhibit of student art from Africa, Asia, South America and Europe.

The exhibit will be replaced in December by the works of Loren Sparks, a local artist.

Sparks' paintings include abstracts, figures and fantasy subjects done in San Francisco, New York and Central Mexico.

Sparks became interested in painting in the 1930's when he was introduced to San Francisco's Benny Bufano and Hilaire Hiler, the French expert on color.

He got to know many artists through Maribelle Tevis, a niece of Will Tevis, a patron of the arts. He has studied in San Francisco, the Arts Students' League in New York and at the Instituto de Arte near Mexico City.

The core of the children's exhibit at the library is part of an exchange exhibit with schools in the city of Saigon in South Vietnam.

"Even as this exhibit hangs here, the work of students from Daly City hangs in one of the great cities of Asia," Mrs. Cordell said.

The work of the Vietnamese children came to her attention while she was traveling in Tahiti. Subsequently, she went to Saigon and worked for the exchange of pictures with a teacher named Mrs. Roualt.

THE GRACIOUS banquet hall of the Olympic Club in San Francisco will be the setting for a champagne luncheon being planned by the officers of the Mary's Help Alumni, according to Mrs. Joan Conway, the busy, busy committeewoman in charge of publicity.

Mrs. Conway reports that members of the association living as far away as Central America and Alaska have been contacted concerning the reunion affair and that officers are optimistic that grads who have scattered all over the face of the map will be sitting down at the tables December 5.

Graduates of the Mary's Help School of Nursing who haven't yet bought their luncheon tickets or contributed to the building fund may do so by calling Mrs. Mary Schwartz, MO 4-1332, as soon as possible. Luncheon tickets are being sold for $4.50, Mrs. Conway said.

Pat Stockowick and Jerry Carver, the co-chairmen of this year's reunion, have been resting up for the big event in Hawaii. The two spent three weeks enjoying the beauty and warmth of the islands but are now buried under masses of details concerning the program.

Chief project at the present time is the completion of the table decorations—charming bubble bath dolls which Mrs. Conway has been laboring to finish.

THE SANTA CLAUS Special, in this case a chartered bus, will leave Pacifica early next month and carry members of the Fifty-Plus Club to Santa Cruz where they will take a ride on the old train pulled along by a steam engine. After the nostalgic sojourn, the group will proceed to tour Santa's Village.

The members are all planning to take their grandchildren and little friends along on this outing. The bus will be able to carry only 45, so make your reservations now by calling Mrs. Elizabeth Funderburg.

SPEAKING OF things of a Christmas nature, anyone faced with the chore of preparing costumes for a Christmas pageant should contact Mrs. Eugene McGinty of South San Francisco or Westlake's Mrs. Monte Hill and Mrs. Lawrence Rogers. This talented trio has turned out delightful costumes for the children who will be appearing in the Family Night program at Lakeside Presbyterian Church December 4.

BUSY MAKING things for December 25? Well, consider the children in Holy Angel's Parish School. Having completed preparing for that great day, they are now industriously engaged in preparing for "Christmas in May."

Confused? Actually whether they have finished preparations for the traditional Christmas Holiday or not has little bearing on the ambitious project being undertaken by children. They are taking part in a unique plan to aid the Sisters of the Holy Order of the Infant Jesus acquire land for a novitiate.

The tiny order (there are only 23 of its members in this country), has its mother house in Ireland and to date there are no training facilities in this country. It has long been a dream of the Sisters at Holy Angels to have a novitiate in this area so that girls wishing to join the order would not have to travel to Ireland to do so, Mrs. Ann Murphy reports.

To help make the dream a reality, members of the parish struck upon the idea of having a major fund-raising event in May. The festival, dubbed "Christmas in May," will feature a booth where items, currently being made by the children of the school, will be sold. Also planned is a carnival that will be presented in conjunction with the annual May Dance Festival.

Mrs. Ebano dal Porto, chairman of the room mothers, has organized the women as teachers' helpers and they are assisting in the classrooms during the arts and crafts period and doing all the shopping and collecting of materials for the teachers, Mrs. Murphy has stated.

Tentative date for the festival-carnival is May 22.

A LITTLE MORE imminent, is the Holy Angels Parish food sale, which will begin at 7:30 a.m. December 6, and continue until 2 p.m.

Doughnuts and coffee are being planned for those who wish to snack a bit while they browse among the tables of goodies. Imported candies and cookies, packaged in beautiful, reusable containers, will serve the dual purpose of decorating the tables and providing an excellent gift idea for any who wish to purchase them.

Persons making donations to the annual guild gift will be eligible to win a $25 grocery order, a case of imported wine or a lovely Christmas centerpiece, Mrs. Ann Theis has announced.

Committeewomen charged with the responsibility of preparing for the sale are Mrs. Dina Martyn, Mrs. Arlene Pleich and Mrs. Marian Provanzale. The committee has announced that the sale will be open to the public.

TINY KAREN RUTH and Sandra Lynn have increased the family of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cesena from 2 to 4 with the happy advent of their birth.

We welcome the twins home from the hospital were brother, Earl, 6, and big sister, Joyce, 7.

The infants, who were born in San Francisco's Children's Hospital, have been visited by dozens of relatives who have journeyed from all over the Bay Area to view the first set of twins in the family.

THE FRIENDS of the Library will meet December 3 instead of on the third Thursday as has been the custom of the association, according to Mrs. U. R. Kendree. The change in the meeting date was made necessary by the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays and is not a permanent thing.

Quail Hawkins, the consultant for library services and book fairs for the Sather Gate Book Store in Berkeley, will be guest speaker. Her topic will be "Books for Christmas-Giving." Miss Hawkins is also a writer who has earned recognition in the field of children's books.

The meeting will be held from 10 until 11:30 a.m. in the Coral Room of the Westlake branch of the Daly City Library. A social period, during which refreshments will be served, will precede the meeting. Mrs. Merle Josselyn and Mrs. Kendree will be in charge.

Calendar Sale Set by Scouts

The Girl Scouts of Daly City are conducting their annual Calendar Sale.

The sale of calendars and cookies supplements part of the girl scout movement. The United Crusade finances the other portion.

A small part of the money received from the sale of calendars is kept by the troops for their use.

Mrs. Georgia Solari of 793 Hillside Boulevard, Daly City, is chairman of the sale.

HIGHLIGHTS

Just wanted to make a few observations on the teams we've rated the top twenty among the small colleges. Four of them are undefeated... seven of them have been beaten twice. 14 of the schools are in the South, three are from the East, only one is from the Midwest, and two are from the Far West.

The latter two, Los Angeles State and San Diego State, are ranked #1 and #2 among the small colleges. By a comparison of power quotients, either of these small college powers would be among the leaders in the Ivy League, and any one of our service teams, Army, Navy, or Air Force, would have their hands full defeating either of them this year.

Where there is very little intersectional competition among small colleges as compared to major colleges, it's difficult to list the top 20 without being accused of "sectionalism." Consequently, we feel that the Harmon formula, based on almost ten years of averages and on statistical analysis, can be neutral and can also be as reliable as is our 78% forecasting average in naming this list.

Naturally, we have had to exclude many fine small college teams throughout the country. However, as with our ratings of the Top 20 Major Teams, a team's won and lost record does not enter into its rating. Calibre of competition is one of the primary factors which includes an average of a team's past performance against all types of competition.

Well, it's interesting... and, as with any rating list of this kind, it's purely a "paper" rating. We can be as wrong as anyone else (and frequently are), and in football, once two teams appear on the field ready for the kickoff, you can tear up the paper!

There's one small college team that has captured the hearts of football fans all over the country for many years, the Slippery Rock Rockets from Slippery Rock, Pennsylvania. And this Friday, the Rockets travel to California to run right into the top small college team in the nation, Los Angeles State. This could be a fantastic day for all Slippery Rock fans if they could manage an upset. However, it won't happen... Los Angeles will run up a small slaughter by about 38 points. Back very briefly to a few "biggies." Notre Dame will chalk up its first national championship since 1949 with a 13 point win over 10th-ranked Southern California.

Alabama, #2, will whip Auburn by 15 points on Thanksgiving Day, and 5th-ranked Texas will also celebrate Turkey Day with a 15 point win over Texas A & M.

Hurriedly and finally, in THE game where all records, reputations, AND relatives can be junked, Navy will pump Army by five points.

SELECTION TERMED 'AN HONOR'

Oceana Stands Fast on Debate

Oceana High School officials have indicated there will be no change in plans for the school's debating team to pretend to be Red China's delegation at a model United Nations meeting at the University of California in February.

They commented after receiving a single-sheet flyer from an anonymous source, asking that the plans be dropped.

The flyer, showing pictures described as mass graves of Americans killed by Red Chinese during the Korean War, ended with this statement:

"Evil is always a controversial subject but that doesn't make it a fit subject for debate."

The flyer had been received by a number of teachers and parents. It was unsigned and gave only P.O. Box 741, Pacifica, as a return address.

Robert Watt, assistant principal at Oceana, said the selection of the school to participate in the model U.N. meeting was an honor.

He said the school was chosen over nine other Northern California high schools that were competing for the invitation.

When news of Oceana's selection was made known, Watt said, several parents called, asking "why we would be wanting to do something like this."

Others, he added, congratulated the school for being chosen.

"As far as we're concerned, we're going to go," Watt said.

"We feel it's a learning situation."

He said Oceana had been informed by U.C. early this fall that the school had not been chosen to participate in the model U.N. Oceana had applied previously.

However, the school's speech teacher and adviser to the debating team, Paul Licciardello, wrote U.C., asking that Oceana be considered if an opening occurred. A total of 114 schools will participate in the program.

The university replied a short time later that the Red China "seat" was open and asked Oceana to submit a list of for and against reasons regarding Red China's entry into the United Nations.

It was on the basis of the presentation Oceana prepared that the invitation was extended.

Watt described the other high schools Oceana had competed against for the Red China "seat" as "pretty classy." He said these were the schools:

South San Francisco; Notre Dame of Belmont; Terra Linda and Sir Francis Drake in Marin County; Salinas and Andrew Hill in the Salinas area; Clayton Valley in the Walnut Creek area; Katherine Delmar Burke in San Francisco, and Antioch. Last year, Watt said, Red China was represented at U.C.'s U.N. meeting by Washington Union High School of Fremont.

Westview School Class Featured in Handbook

A sixth grade class at Westview School in the Laguna Salada School District is shown in a photo in the nationally-distributed Teacher's Handbook on World Events.

The class is taught by John Stuart. The publication shows students using materials provided in the World Events program and contains a critique by Stuart on use of the materials.

The class was visited as part of an evaluation of the World Events program in April of last year.

THE SMALL WORLD of "miniaturization"—the process of reducing material as much as 100 to 1 through microfilming—will be amplified at San Francisco State College for two days, December 4 and 5, when its Industrial Arts Department presents a conference to demonstrate the program.

The Recordak and Xerox Corporations will reveal their latest equipment in Room 132 of the Industrial Arts Building both days. The first day will be devoted to high schools and colleges with demonstrations each hour from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

On December 5, sessions will be open to the public at no charge. Officials from the Philco, Lockheed and Dietrich-Post Companies will present papers in the College's Little Theatre. 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. in the Industrial Arts Building. Further information may be obtained by calling JU 4-2300.

San Mateo

BOB DYLAN, regarded by some critics as the nation's top contemporary folk singer, will perform in College of San Mateo's gymnasium at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

The 22-year-old, tousle-haired artist, composer of many of the songs made famous by Joan Baez and the Peter, Paul and Mary group, accompanies himself on guitar and harmonica.

His program will be sponsored by the Associated Students.

Tickets at $3 for the public and $1.50 for CSM students, will be on sale at the door.

MORE THAN 60 public programs—featuring such notable attractions as the San Francisco Symphony and columnist Stewart Alsop, and ranging in subject matter from crime to marital problems and international affairs—will make up College of San Mateo's community education schedule for the spring semester.

Plans for the program, arranged by Dr. William H. Miller, community education coordinator, have been approved by the board of trustees.

In format, they will include three-and-four-part series, one-day institutes and short courses.

The Times Hosts Peninsula's Biggest Birthday Party

The Times party guests started arriving early Sunday...

Many to Celebrate An Opening

It isn't very often that you celebrate a grand opening and a 75th birthday on the same day.

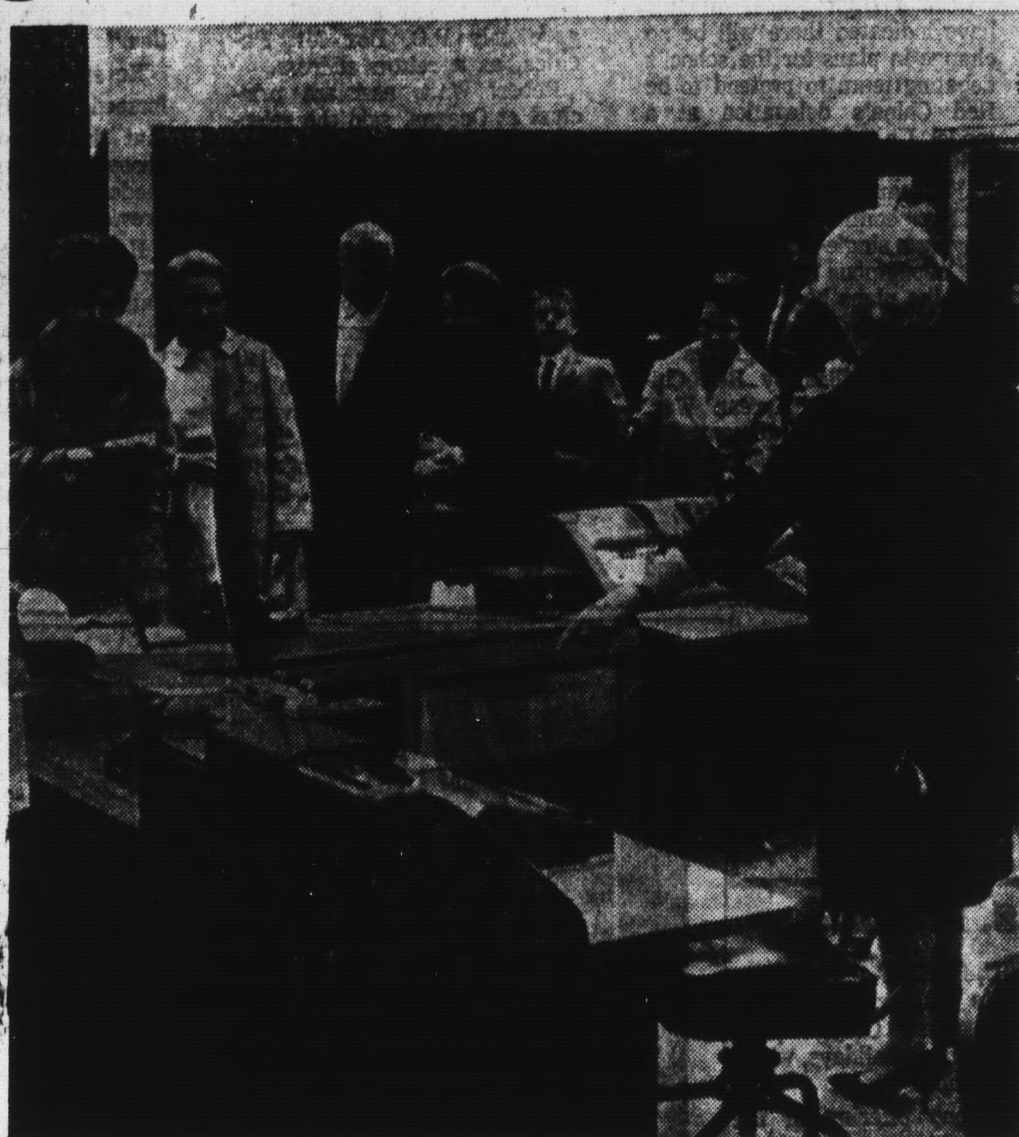

The Times did just that last Sunday when it opened the doors of its new printing and publishing plant at 1080 South Bayshore Boulevard in San Mateo.

It turned out to be one of the Peninsula's biggest birthday parties. An estimated 10,000 guests, most of them Times subscribers, showed up during the five-hour open house.

Like all birthday parties, refreshments were a must. The Times visitors enjoyed 8750 servings of cake and cookies, and about that many cups of coffee and soft drinks.

The guests were given guided tours of the new $1,250,000 plant, including a close-up look at the $500,000 Hoe rotary press installation, largest on the Peninsula. Times photographer Ray Zirkel roamed throughout the 40,000 square feet of the building's interior to record the event pictorially.

It was the first birthday he'd covered where he couldn't get everybody in the picture.

...and early in the tour, a look at the computer room...

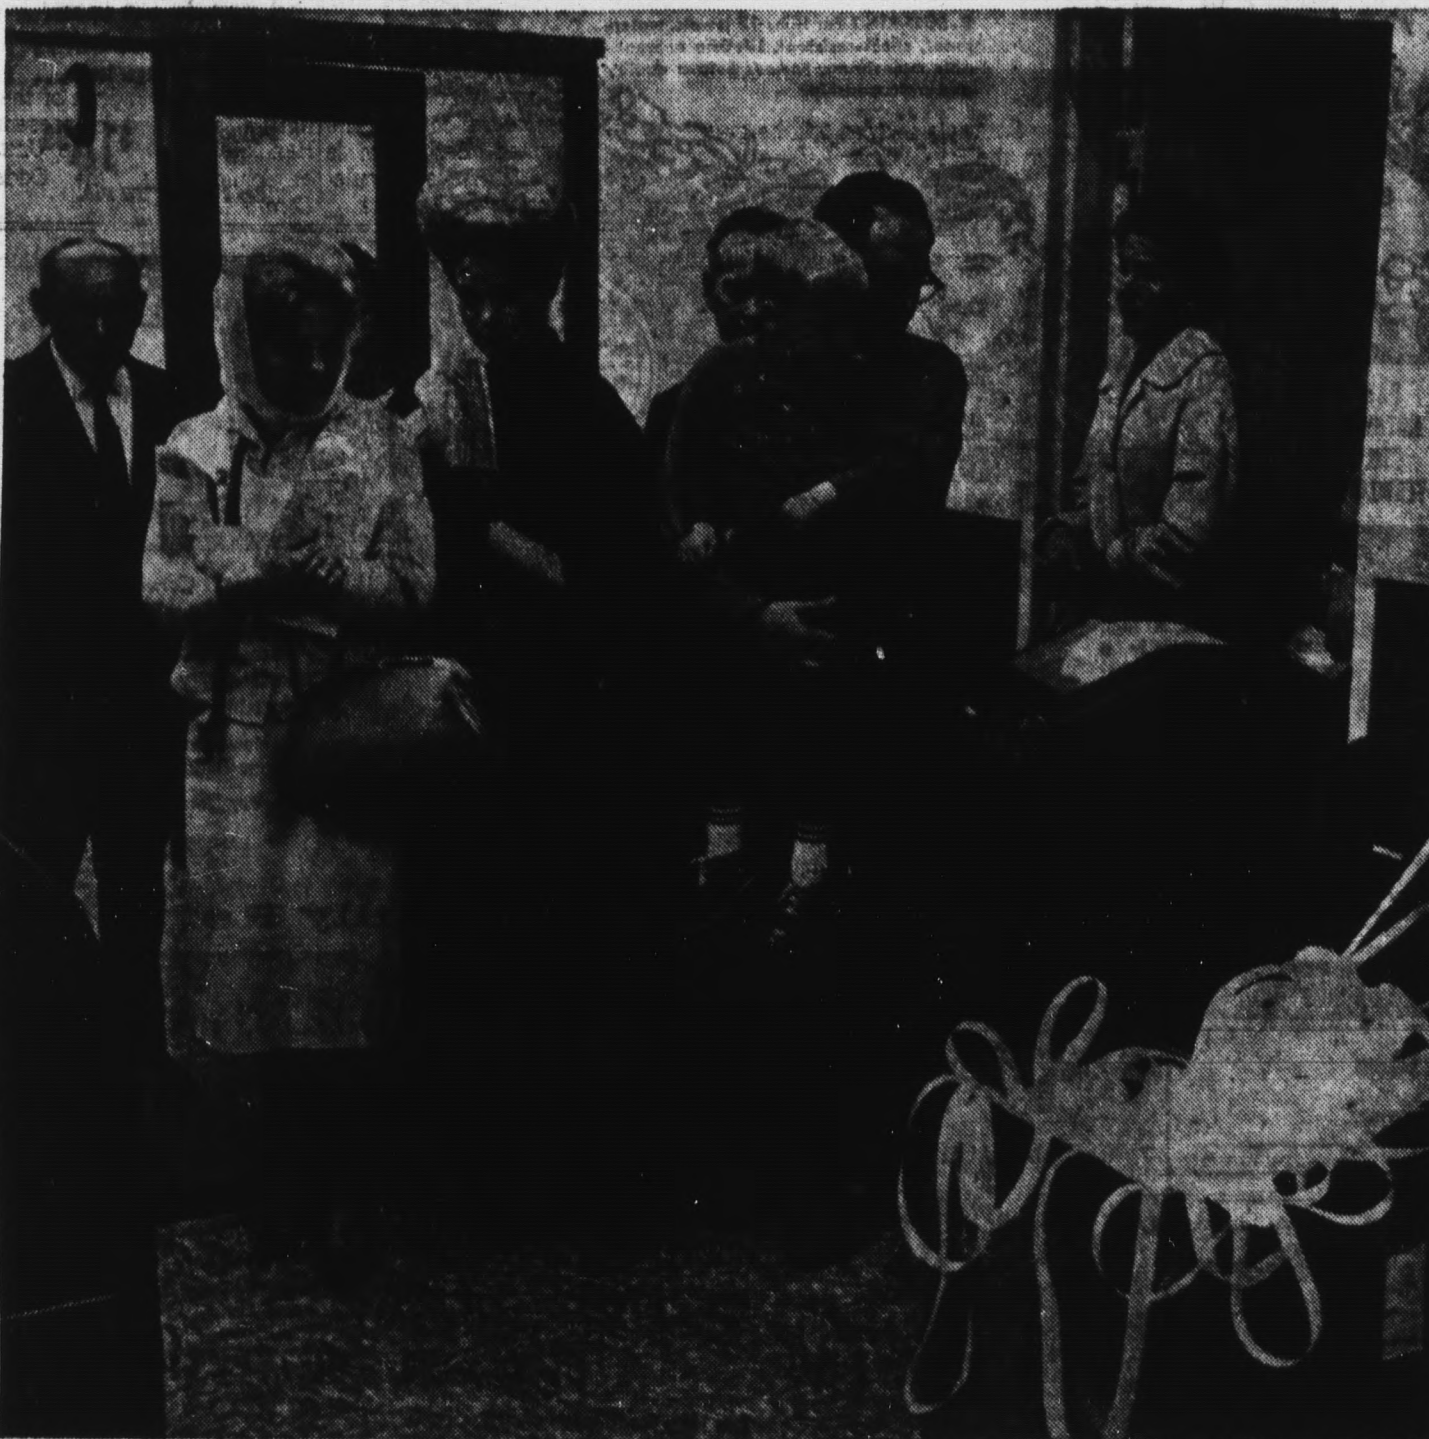

...you've seen the composing room folks, now on to the stores...

...yes, this is the curved printing plate. Here's how...

...the man is perforating tape. Somehow it makes type...

...there's that tape again. It's coming off the teletype machine. Gosh...

...a 3-story printing press, hmmm...

...exit pressroom, on to the cake and coffee!

CHOCOLATE SHADOW CAKE — Can now be made with a new chocolate-flavored product that saves cook's time.

New Chocolate Shadow Cake

American ingenuity has created a new chocolate-flavored product to save cooks time. With this ingredient, no melting of chocolate is necessary. Packaged in 1-ounce envelopes (eight to a carton) the product can be used in the following recipe for a layer cake of a medium chocolate color, and used it to make chocolate shadows on the fluffy white frosting.

NEW CHOCOLATE SHADOW CAKE

2½ cups sifted cake flour
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 cup butter or margarine
1 teaspoon vanilla
2½ cups firmly packed light

brown sugar (1 pound)

3 eggs
3 envelopes (1 ounce each) unsweetened chocolate-flavored product
1 cup milk
Fluffy White Frosting

Sift together the flour and baking soda. Cream butter and vanilla; beat in brown sugar 2 tablespoons at a time—this should take about 10 minutes with the electric mixer. Beat in eggs thoroughly, one at a time. Stir in 2 envelopes of the chocolate-flavored product. Alternately add flour mixture and milk, beating until smooth after each addition.

Turn batter into three round 8-inch layer cake pans that have been lined on the bottom with waxed paper. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven for 30 to 35 minutes, or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Turn out on wire racks; remove paper; cool.

Put cakes together and cover top and sides with Fluffy White Frosting. Hold the remaining flavored product under very hot water to soften so it will flow. Open envelope as directed and drizzle the contents around top edge of cake letting some of it run down the sides.

Rosy Peach Sauce Will Accent Roast

The lady with a variety of foods in the kitchen is much like an artist with a palette of colors: she can mix them, match them or use them for contrast as she plans her menu. Imagine how attractive the delicately light color of veal is with a peach-pink sauce! If she adds to this browned potatoes, a green vegetable like broccoli, and then combines the red of apples and Tokay grapes for a salad, the homemaker has created a meal of beauty.

Veal has little fat. We suggest placing strips of bacon on the top surface of the meat when roasting veal. For roasting, use a shallow pan with a rack, but do not add water or cover the meat.

Veal Rump Roast—Rosy Peach Sauce

3 to 4-pound veal rump roast
Salt and pepper
4 bacon slices
Rosy Peach Sauce
Season meat with salt and pepper. Place on rack in an open roasting pan. Insert a meat thermometer so bulb reaches the center of the roast, being sure the bulb does not rest in fat or on bone. Place bacon slices on roast. Do not add water. Do not cover. Roast in slow oven (325 degrees Fahrenheit) 2½ to 3½ hours or until thermometer registers 170 degrees Fahrenheit. Allow 45 to 50 minutes per pound for roasting. Serve with:

Rosy Peach Sauce
1 can (16 ounces) sliced peaches
¼ cup catchup
2 teaspoons lemon juice
1 tablespoon cornstarch
2 tablespoons sugar
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon ground cloves
¼ teaspoon salt
Drain peaches, reserving juice. Combine peach juice, catchup and lemon juice. Mix cornstarch, sugar, cinnamon, cloves and salt. Add to peach juice mixture. Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Add peach slices. Cook just until heated through. Yield: 2 cups sauce.

"BOTTOMLESS" PEACH PIE

Apple 'n' Orange Pie for Holidays

A new pie is on the scene — new to us anyway, and maybe to you. This is a fresh-tasting combination of apple and orange with a lacing of spice.

We're not suggesting that this replace America's favorite all-apple pie, but if your family and guests enjoy an occasional changeabout, then the chances are this dessert will both surprise and delight them.

Of course a filling is no better than its pastry — so do use flaky pie dough for this recipe. We made ours with our own mix and rolled it quite thin. Be sure, too, to cut ample vents in the top crust. A kind friend once sent us a small gadget that cuts out flowerlike designs from pastry (for vents) and it's quick and easy to use — though not

APPLE AND ORANGE PIE

- 1/2 cup granulated sugar
- 3/4 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
- 1/4 cup flour
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1/4 teaspoon allspice
- Grated rind of one orange
- Grated rind of one lemon
- Flaky pastry for a two-crust 9-inch pie
- 5 large (1 1/4 pounds) tart apples
- 3 large seedless oranges
- 3 tablespoons butter or margarine

In a small bowl, thoroughly stir together the granulated sugar, brown sugar, flour, cinnamon, nutmeg, allspice, grated orange rind and grated lemon rind; reserve.

Roll out half the pastry; fit it into a 9-inch pie plate. Roll out the remaining half of the pastry for the top crust; cut vents in it to allow steam to escape.

Pare, core and slice the apples so no white membrane remains; cut away sections from dividing membranes.

Alternate layers of apple slices and orange sections in the pastry-lined pie plate and as you do so sprinkle with the sugar mixture. Dot with butter.

Place top crust over filling; trim, seal and flute edge. If you like, you may brush the top crust with slightly beaten egg white and sprinkle with a little granulated sugar.

Bake in a hot (425 degrees) oven for 15 minutes; bake at 400 degrees for 30 minutes longer. Cool pie just long enough to allow filling to set a bit before cutting or cool completely, reheat and serve warm.

Note: There should be about five cups sliced apples and about two cups orange sections.

Ground Beef Fashioned Into Rolls

Sage advice given homemakers to keep them from getting cooking doldrums often includes this idea: try at least one new recipe a month.

If the recipe is both thrifty and ingenious, the homemaker will feel she has something.

Cooked ground beef, explains a recognized meat authority, is mixed with novel seasonings like sage, mustard and chili sauce. This mixture is then placed on a rectangle of biscuit dough and rolled jelly roll fashion. Slice and bake according to recipe directions.

Ground Beef Rolls—Vegetable Gravy

- 1 1/2 pounds ground beef
- 1 can (2 ounces) mushroom stems and pieces, drained
- 1/4 cup chopped onion
- 1 tablespoon lard or drippings
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1/4 teaspoon sage
- 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1 cup chili sauce
- 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed mushroom soup
- 1 can (16 ounces) peas, drained

Cook ground beef, mushrooms and onion in lard or drippings until lightly browned. Pour off drippings. Combine ground beef mixture, salt, pepper, sage, dry mustard and chili sauce. Prepare Biscuit Dough. Roll dough into a 12x16-inch rectangle, about 1/4-inch thick. Spread meat mixture on dough. Roll as a jelly roll. Cut into 1-inch slices and sheet. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees Fahrenheit) 30 minutes. Combine mushroom soup and peas in a saucepan and heat. Serve with beef rolls. Serves 4 to 6.

Biscuit Dough

- 2 cups sifted enriched flour
 - 1 tablespoon baking powder
 - 3/4 teaspoon salt
 - 4 to 6 tablespoons lard
 - One-third to 1/2-cup milk
- Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cut in lard until mixture has a fine even crumb. Add enough milk to make a soft dough. Turn onto a lightly floured surface and knead gently for 1/4-minute.

CHICKEN TOKAY

Looking for a different way to serve broiler-fryers? Oven fry the chickens and at the same time bake a pan of dressing made with convenient packaged stuffing mix and halved Tokay grapes. The grapes moisten the stuffing and their flavor for the chicken.

Porcupines Tricky and Delicious

Tricky to make, but delicious!

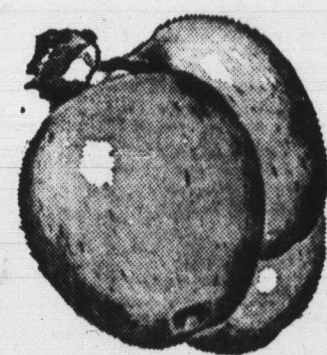

Braised Beef with Sour Cream Sauce and Buckwheat Groats Mixed Vegetables Rolls Ice Cream Lacy Porcupines

- Lacy Porcupines
- 6 tablespoons flour
- 1/2 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
- 1/2 cup coarsely chopped blanched almonds (pea size)
- 2 1/2 tablespoons butter, melted
- 2 tablespoons cold water

Grease cookie sheets with sweet or clarified butter. In a mixing bowl, stir together the flour and sugar; stir in almonds, next the melted butter and then the water. Drop by slightly rounded teaspoons, about 4 inches apart, onto prepared cookie sheets. Slightly flatten and round cookie mixture with a spatula or knife. Bake in a moderate (375 degrees) oven until thin, lacy, and brown — about 6 minutes; nuts should be toasted. Allow to stand 1 minute; then at once lift wafer edges and ease off by holding long side of a spatula almost parallel to cookie sheet. Roll up each wafer as it is removed, or have helper do the rolling. If wafers become too hard to remove and roll, return briefly to oven to soften. Cool, seam side down, on wire rack. Makes about 30.

Advance Look at a Professional Center

THIS IS an architect's drawing of a two-story glass and stone structure that will house the Civic Center Plaza Professional Building, planned for a half-acre site at 151 87th Street near the site of the proposed Daly City Civic Center. The building will cost $300,000 to build. It will be owned by George W. Smith and George and Ray Lagomarsino, Daly City businessmen. The structure was designed by Paul D. Markling, South San Francisco architect. A construction contract has been awarded to Joseph Ragni and Sons of Daly City.

Skyline to Host Santa

Santa Claus will make his annual — and much anticipated — appearance at Skyline Plaza Shopping Center at 2:30 p.m. Saturday.

He'll have free candy canes for the youngsters, according to his elves who will pass out the goodies.

To welcome Santa, Sal Carson, San Francisco band leader, and his combo will be on hand to provide toe-tapping Christmas music.

The center is at Skyline Boulevard and Westmoor Avenue in Daly City.

Aetna Names New Director

Ron C. McDonnell has been named director of sales promotion and advertising for the Aetna Realty Company of Daly City, according to an announcement by Morris Kay, president of Aetna.

A former San Francisco newspaperman, McDonnell will continue to handle his own real estate brokerage in addition to his new assignment.

Aetna is a new firm, comprised of 10 experienced independent brokers who specialize in commercial real estate and home sales.

BETTER BUSINESS

Travel Agent Aids Budget-Conscious

By LORENE BEASLEY
Editor, Better Business Bureau Barmometer

WHO IS YOUR travel agent? Today, the travel agent is a specialist whose experience and know-how enables the budget-conscious American tourist to travel wisely and within his means to all corners of the world.

Some people prefer to make their own travel arrangements, but the majority of travelers, especially those making their first trip abroad, find that a good travel agent saves them much grief, as well as time and money, in making arrangements for transportation whether they be by air, bus, rail or boat.

A travel agent will take care of the arrangements for renting a car for his client to travel abroad in, even to procuring a chauffeur for the tourist who does not want to drive in European countries.

There are several car rental plans for the tourist to choose from—daily rental, unlimited mileage, one-way, etc.

A travel agent will make the necessary arrangements for the purchase of a car abroad, providing en route travel service, documents, insurance and manufacturer's guarantees.

MOST TRAVEL agents are appointed by recognized carriers. To officially represent the carriers and to issue tickets, the travel agent must be able to prove financial responsibility and a thorough knowledge of the transportation field.

There are travel agents who do not hold carrier appointments because they are starting out in a small business or because they handle only specialized services that do not require such appointments.

The principal complaints received by the Better Business Bureau reflects the public's lack of understanding of the travel agent's role, particularly in the matter of fees charged.

The largest part of the travel agent's income comes from commissions received from transportation carriers and hotels for the services rendered to their clients.

But there are hotels and pensions throughout the world that do not pay a commission to the travel agent. He generally receives no commission from railroads for rail and pullman tickets he arranges for his client.

THE MORE complicated travel services, such as special-arranged tours and independent itineraries, practically always carry a charge for the services of the travel agent.

Such tours require considerable time and work and with high office overhead, the travel agent could not afford to do otherwise.

The responsible travel agent takes great pride in the type of service he renders and gladly provides his client with a copy of the terms and conditions of the contract specifying his charge.

As in any industry, there is a small minority of travel agents who take advantage of the uninformed. The Better Business Bureau can provide a factual report about the reputation of the agent with whom you intend to deal with before making up your mind.

Terra Nova Topics

SPIRIT WEEK is on its way once again at Terra Nova. During the week of December 1 through 4, classes will participate in spirit competition. A plaque will be awarded to the most spirited class by the faculty. Judging will be on a point system.

The first day of excitement will be Tuesday, which will be "Crazy Day." Seniors will wear crazy hats, juniors crazy colors, sophomores crazy shirts, and freshmen, the craziest shoes and socks!

On Wednesday, Terra Nova will change from a school to a "Wonderful World of Storybooks." Class members will become characters from a storybook.

THERE WILL be a 2:10 dismissal Thursday because of two football games. These will not be like any other games in Terra Nova's history — mainly because they will be played by all girl teams.

The first game will be seniors versus juniors; the second will be sophomores versus freshmen. Preceding the games will be the usual Spirit Rally where all classes will present their class skits.

Friday is color day! Each class is assigned to wear a specific color—seniors white, juniors black, sophomores gold, and freshmen red.

The spirit plaque winner will be announced at the varsity-faculty basketball game Friday.

THE SENIORS had a good turnout for their car wash, which was held two Saturdays ago. Many students participated in the washing, even though they were freezing cold. Others joined in "just for fun." The car wash is an annual senior fund raising project.

BLOCK T. N. members and their fathers engaged in a hearty chicken dinner last Tuesday night after which they saw two movies: "Stanford University Football History," and "Statistics on Stanford University." Speeches were given by an assistant coach from Stanford, as well by coaches of T. N.'s present teams.

The spirit staff helped to serve dinner, and as thanks for being fine hostesses received a free dinner.

ALBERT F. RICHARDS has joined the Pacific Construction Company of South San Francisco as vice president and chief estimator. Richards, 33, has been associated with the construction industry for the past 15 years. He has specialized in estimating for the past 10 years.

Junior Teen Membership Night Slated

Friday will be "Membership Night" at four of the junior teen clubs sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department.

Seventh and eighth grade students who have not had the opportunity to join may do so, according to youth supervisor Alan Boyd, by bringing a completed application, the 75-cent membership fee and a recent picture to one of the four club meetings.

The Bovines will meet at Bayshore School at 7 p.m. for a program which will feature a movie night followed by a short dance. Admission will be 25 cents for members and 40 cents for guests.

The Know Names will meet at the Westlake Park Clubhouse from 7 to 9 p.m. for their regular dance and activity night.

The Roof Raisers will meet at the M. Pauline Brown School at 7 p.m. for a short business meeting followed by an ice skating party at the San Francisco Ice Arena. Cost of the outing is one dollar for members and $1.25 for guests that includes bus transportation, medical insurance, skating and skate rental.

The Telstars will meet at Abraham Lincoln School from 7 to 9 p.m. for a regular dance night highlighted by a Limbo contest. Admission is 10 cents. No guests are allowed.

Hi Fi Teen Skating Set

The Hi Fi Teen Club, sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department will hold a roller skating party Saturday, followed by a dance.

Buses will leave the War Memorial Community Center at 5 p.m. for a two-hour skating period at Rollerland. The dance will be held at the center from 8 to 10 p.m.

Cost of the outing, open to members only, is one dollar. The cost includes the skating, the dance, transportation and skate rental.

Stores Will Compete in Yule Display

The Westlake Shopping Center's 91 stores are competing for $255 in cash prizes in the center's annual Christmas window display contest.

Designed to create a festive holiday decor for shoppers, the contest will offer prizes in three divisions.

Each will feature a $50 first prize, $25 for runners-up and $10 for the third best display.

Store windows will be judged on originality, general attractiveness and merchandising appeal.

Judges chosen by the merchants' association are: Mrs. Helen Cordell, art consultant for the Jefferson Elementary School District; David Friedenberg, president of the Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce, and Dr. George Riba, president of the Daly City Rotary Club.

They will meet next Wednesday night to tour the stores and make their selections.

Holy Angels' Students Win Many Awards

Stephanie Dal Porto, an eighth grade student at Holy Angels' School won a $50 prize for her composition, "The Place of Christopher Columbus in World History," in a contest sponsored by the Knights of Columbus.

She competed with parochial and public school students in the seventh and eighth grades for six schools.

Holy Angels' students who participated in the 1964 Feis held at St. Brigid's School recently also received awards. Feis (pronounced Fesh) is a Gaelic word meaning Festival of Irish Culture. Competitions were held in music, singing, poetry, literature, dancing, arts, and crafts.

In the singing group, first prizes went to the Holy Angels' choir under ten years of age and to the choir under 14 years of age.

In the elocution group, third grader Michael Moran won first prize and his classmate Jimmy Harvey won second prize. Also, in elocution, 14 years of age and under, second prize went Sheryl Stuhler and third prize to Cathy Amorose.

In piano playing, ten years of age and under, first prize was awarded to Marlene McGuire of the third grade, a music student at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music. Awards will be given out at a "Prize Winners Concert" at St. Paul's Auditorium Saturday at 7 p.m.

D.C. Teacher Takes Course

John Wherry of 93 Mira Vista Court in Daly City, a science teacher at Oceana High School, is taking part in a year-long Institute of Nuclear Science and Radioisotope Technology at the University of California.

The teacher is one of 20 from throughout Northern California enrolled in the program.

The Institute is offered by U.C. Extension and is designed to help teachers improve their background in science and teaching skills. Lectures and laboratory sessions are directed by Dr. George Jura, U.C. professor of chemistry.

Youngster Hit by Car

A four-year-old Daly City girl suffered a cut on the head about 4 p.m. Thursday when she was struck by a car on Hillcrest Avenue, east of Santa Barbara Avenue, in Daly City.

Donna J. Beaton, of 21 Hillcrest, was given emergency treatment at Kaiser Foundation Hospital in South San Francisco and transferred to County General Hospital for further observation.

The driver of the car, Karl F. Kettler, 64, of 10 Sullivan Avenue, Daly City, told police the child had run into the path of his auto from between a parked car and a curbside construction shed.

HE'S ON HIS WAY

Santa Claus to Visit Westlake

The jingle of bells you just might have heard in the still of the night this week probably was the sound of a busy man en route to a busy place.

Santa Claus, according to the Westlake Shopping Center's informants at the North Pole, has departed from his arctic workshop and is guiding his reindeer and sleigh toward the center.

The jolly man with the jolly beard is expected to arrive in Westlake at precisely 2 p.m., arrival. Center merchants, who again extended the invitation for Santa to visit Westlake, have extended a further welcome to boys and girls and old-timers to welcome Santa.

Once here, Mr. Claus will be on hand to chat with his fans and take their Christmas present requests from noon until 5 each day (except this Friday) in his headquarters in the mall of the center.

Starting Monday, according to an announcement from merchants, all stores in the center will provide a medley of snappy Yuletide music for Mr. Claus' Christmas.

Plan Pot Roast For Second Meal

When a beef pot roast is on the Sunday menu, buy one a pound or two heavier than needed with a second meal in mind. For yesterday's pot roast becomes today's memorable menu when made into a delectable main dish such as Beef and Noodles Parmesan. The smooth creamy gravy of this meaty dish owes its success to double-rich evaporated milk, so handy and so thrifty to use. Beef and Noodles Parmesan

The smooth creamy gravy of this meaty dish owes its success to double-rich evaporated milk, so handy and so thrifty to use. Beef and Noodles Parmesan
1/4 cup butter
1 cup sliced celery

About 3 cups cut-up cooked beef pot roast
1 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
1 cup boiling water
1 beef bouillon cube
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
2 tablespoons flour
1-3 cup grated Parmesan cheese

1 can (14 1/2 oz.) evaporated milk (1-2-3 cups)
8-oz. pkg. medium noodles, cooked
Melt butter in large skillet. Add onions and celery; cook over medium heat until onions are transparent, stirring occasionally. Add meat; continue to cook slowly until meat is thoroughly heated. Remove from heat. Add salt, pepper, water in which bouillon cube has been dissolved and Worcestershire sauce. Gradually sprinkle in flour, stirring to blend smoothly. Stir in Parmesan cheese and evaporated milk. Heat, stirring occasionally, until mixture is hot and bubbling, about 5 minutes. Serve over hot cooked noodles. Makes 6 servings.

Yule Basket Program Set

Final plans for Pacifica's Community Christmas Basket program were put into action last week at a meeting of the city's civic organizations at City Hall. The program, initiated six years ago, is being directed this season by Ernest Ribera, principal of Oceana High School. It is sponsored by the city's Welfare Referral service. Mrs. Lee Flaherty, secretary of the Welfare Referral Board, said that anyone who wants to donate money, toys or gifts may call her at 355-4151.

Childbirth Course Set

The last two fall-semester sections of College of San Mateo's "education for childbirth" course started last week.

A Tuesday evening section meets at Peninsula Hospital in Burlingame, a Wednesday evening group at Mills Memorial Hospital in San Mateo. Both start at 7:30.

Now in their seventh year and attended by more than 2,000 women in the past, the weekly classes are taught by a registered nurse, Mrs. Arthur Imamoto, and have been developed in close conjunction with the San Mateo County Medical Society.

Written consent from each student's attending physician is required for enrollment. The regular evening college registration fee of $3 is the only charge.

Classes meet for two hours per session and run from six to eight weeks, depending on availability of facilities at the host institutions.

As in the past, each section will include meetings intended also for prospective fathers and will feature films on prenatal care and childbirth—plus guest appearances by physicians.

Information on registration may be obtained by calling Mrs. Imamoto at 341-1955.

American Traditions Thanksgiving

This Thanksgiving of 1964 must have a special significance for us all because of the outcome of the recent elections. In America, thank God, we do not have VICTORS or LOSERS. The people have chosen their Leader for the next four years, in the good tradition of fair play.

Americans of all faiths, creeds and color are united behind our President-Elect. Our land as usual is blessed with the bounty of the good things of life. Our people enjoy the freedoms of opportunity and the reward for work well done. Now it is up to us to retain our SPIRITUAL and MORAL strength high above political differences. Our loved ones should be given the feeling of belonging, so we can eliminate delinquencies either juvenile or parental.

Our greatest heritage that is left to us as a SACRED BOND, is the DIGNITY OF BEING AN AMERICAN.

Our forefathers celebrated the first Thanksgiving in 1621. And now in 1964 with all the blessings that we enjoy as Americans, we should work together and achieve the PEACE and FREEDOM for all mankind. We can, if we put our faith in Almighty God. Let us not forget that in our history the great Presidents such as George Washington and Abraham Lincoln always turned to Him for guidance with their prayerful hearts.

We at Omar Khayyam's extend our hearts in gratitude for the blessings of America and pray to God to keep America strong; to keep its harvest bountiful in the good things of life, so we can share these good things with all of the people who are worthy.

Gratefully yours,

George M. Khayyam

SERVICE NEWS

CLAIRE H. VAN ORDEN, daughter of Mrs. Jacqueline Sturdevant of 789 Claridge Drive, Pacifica, has enlisted as a Wave in the U. S. Navy. She is a graduate of Ocean High School and a member of the Pacifica 4-H Club. She is now going through Navy Wave Recruit training at Bainbridge, Maryland.

JOHN FERNANDEZ, a graduate of Jefferson High School and the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Fernandez of 9 Parkview Avenue, Daly City, has been awarded the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal and a Navy Unit commendation for his part in combat in the Gulf of Tonkin Bay of Vietnam in August.

LEROY J. JOHNSON
Airman Third Class Leroy J. Johnson, son of Charles C. Johnson of 1579 Rosith Road, Pacifica, has graduated from the technical training course for U. S. Air Force jet aircraft mechanics at Amarillo AFB, Texas.
The airman is a graduate of Terra Nova High School.

ROLAND M. MYER
Roland M. Myer, 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester M. Myer, 1538 Grand Avenue, Pacifica, has been promoted to specialist five while assigned to the 5th Artillery in Germany. Specialist Myer, overseas since October 1963, is a survey specialist in Headquarters 2nd Battalion near Babenhäusen. He was graduated from Mission High School in San Francisco in 1955 and entered the Army in July of that year. His wife, Ingrid, is with him in Germany.

Weatherman Could Double As Mr. Claus

The weatherman could double as Santa Claus for Pacificans this year, according to Dino Casinelli, state highway engineer. "Forecasts promise fair days and if the good weather holds out longer, the contractor hopes to have the entire four-lanes of the Cabrillo Freeway open to traffic by Christmas," he announced.

Paving in the Mori's Point area is complete, Casinelli said. He hopefully predicted that two lanes southbound from Clarendon and two lanes northbound from Avalon would be open to traffic sometime this week. Casinelli said a heavy downpour two weeks ago delayed work a minimum of two weeks. "It's always hard to get the momentum going again after such a setback," he explained. But he added: "If this fair weather forecast holds true, the contractor is hoping to get the first layer of rock down on all uncompleted freeway sections so that further rain will not be as damaging."

Colma Benefit Dance Planned

The Colma Fire Department will sponsor its annual dance for the benefit of its Widows' and Orphans' Fund from 9 to 2 Saturday night in Colombo Hall on San Pedro Road in Colma. Music will be provided by the Keynotes. Dario L. Bonfantini, chairman of the dance, said door prizes will be awarded. Winners won't have to be present to claim their prizes.

William G. Nichols

Airman Second Class William G. Nichols, son of Mrs. Alice M. Nichols of 213 Wellington Avenue, Daly City, has been selected Outstanding Airman of the Month for Biggs AFB, Tex. A graduate of Jefferson Union High School, the airman entered the service in June 1963.

D. C. Youth Badly Hurt In Accident

A 19-year-old San Bruno youth was critically injured shortly before midnight last Wednesday night when his auto apparently careened out of control and rammed a steel sign pole on Mission Street in Daly City. The youth, Gerald S. Jones of 311 Summit Road, was taken to Peninsula Hospital in Burlingame. Daly City police said the youth had been driving south on Mission Street when he apparently lost control. His car jumped a curb, grazed a chain across a used car lot operated by Daly City Volkswagen at 6918 Mission, ricocheted off a fence post and struck the steel pole, which advertised the Volkswagen.

Investigators said the youth's car, a 1965 model was demolished by the impact. A number of used cars in the lot were damaged by the impact of the chain.

VANDALISM REPORTED
The Konsthoff Construction Company reported to Daly City police last week that vandals had broken 11 windows in apartments under construction at 1329 Brunswick Street.

Laguna Salada to Give Physical Fitness Tests

Physical fitness testing in Laguna Salada schools will go into effect as mandated by the state legislature by the fall of 1965, according to District Supt. Fred Lucas.

Experimental programs in district schools will be tried and tested during the current school year.

Lucas said purposes of administering the tests is to to the San Mateo County Com- secure information needed to: (1) identify physically under- developed students, (2) adapt instruction to individual needs, (3) appraise students' progress, and (4) adapt the program to students' needs.

Minimum testing, as pre- scribed by law, requires only one test per year at different grade levels.

However, a district commit- tee will be established to deter- mine the number of tests to be given yearly and at what grade levels these tests will be ad- ministered, Lucas explained.

Marvin Morganti, curriculum consultant, has been appointed of the San Mateo County Com- mittee on Physical Fitness Test- ing and will co-ordinate the pro- gram in Laguna schools.

Tests will include pull-ups or push-ups for girls, standing broad jump, 50-yard dash, and a run-and-walk 600 yards.

Pacifica Jaycees Will Honor Leaders in Physical Fitness

The Pacifica Junior Chamber of Commerce has launched a city-wide search for physical fitness leaders.

William Feeney, president of the chamber, said Jaycees plan to honor men and women who have made important contributions to city, state and national physical fitness efforts.

One individual will be singled out for special honors, he said. The drive was launched in support of the President's Council for Physical Fitness.

Richard McLain, chairman of the drive, reported that special physical fitness leadership award certificates will be presented to physical educators, writers, leaders of recreation centers or clubs and leaders in business or government who have organized fitness programs geared to children of school age.

A panel of judges will agree on a person to be nominated for state competition. Each state winner will then qualify for regional judging.

Then, 12 regional winners will receive an all-expense-paid trip to New York City or Washington, D. C., for national judging.

Three persons will be chosen as national winners for 1964 and each will receive a $1,000 cash award from the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce and Standard Packaging.

All Pacifica schools, recreation groups, civic, fraternal and athletic organizations are invited to submit the names of possible candidates to the Jaycees. Further information may be obtained from W. J. Fassler at 359-4035.

Anti-Erosion Plans Given Top Priority

Measures that would lead to immediate steps to check and correct erosion damage on the north end of Pacifica's coastal esplanade have been given top priority in plans being developed by the city's Beach Development Committee.

Eldred Lokker, staff assistant to the committee, said that while the entire coastal area is of great concern, the seriousness of the Pacific Manor section has been even more critical by erosion caused by recent heavy rains.

Max Link, chairman of the committee, said work must begin where the need is greatest. He said several homes on the north end of the shoreline are about on the brink of falling into the ocean.

Committee member Charles Trifeletti stressed the need for a timely solution in which immediate steps could be taken to correct conditions before too much damage occurs and restoration will become unreasonably expensive.

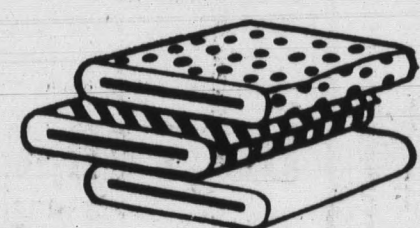

The committee then agreed that steps to correct erosion damage at the north end must be taken right away instead of the committee waiting for the completion of an over-all plan for the coastline. This over-all plan is to be completed no later than June of 1965.

Lokker reported that he has been informed by Congressman J. Arthur Younger that all avenues of government aid have been explored. A U. S. Army Corps of Engineers study of Pacifica's coastline is now going on.

Edward Maykel, engineering consultant for the committee, presented a progress report. He has been consulting with the State Division of Beaches and Parks and with army engineers. Maykel will present a time-schedule of proposed work at the committee's December meeting.

WESTLAKE MERCHANTS

War Set on Shoplifters

The Westlake Shopping Center will wage a concentrated war for the next 30 days against shoplifters.

In one of the heaviest crackdowns ever planned by a merchant's organization, the shopping center will send out a special force of plainclothes men and uniformed officers to keep a sharp lookout for shoplifters.

"We're tired of being considered a soft touch," Morris Levine, president of the Westlake Merchants' Association declared.

Merchants suffer about 25 per cent of their year's losses from thefts in the 30 shopping days before Christmas, he pointed out.

"We want to cut that down as much as possible and that's why we plan to supplement the regular force of officers."

The men who will roam throughout the shopping center's stores in plain clothes will be hard to detect, Henry Gross, supervisor of the shopping center's special police patrol, explained. And he added:

"These men and women are all trained especially for this work," he said.

Levine said he hoped customers who may be inconvenienced by investigations conducted by the special officers will be patient during the crackdown and will understand the shoplifting problem.
